This week there was an excellent front page article in the Richmond Times Dispatch about the transformation of CNU – “Modest Size, Large Vision” – which I am sending on to you.

This week over 1,400 students have paid $500 and confirmed a seat in the next year’s freshman class. This will be the largest and best qualified class in the history of CNU.

Finally, almost 90% of our freshmen have registered for classes next year. We will lose some of these students over the summer but expect to achieve a freshman-sophomore retention rate approaching 90%. This will be the highest retention rate in the history of CNU and places us in the ranks of America’s best schools.
