Deaf Jam: Film Screening

Director: Judy Lieff

TUESDAY APRIL 5, 2016, 7PM Music and Theater Hall

On Screen/In Person Film Series

Illuminating the extraordinary power of American Sign Language (ASL) poetry, Deaf Jam is story of Aneta Brodski's bold journey into the spoken word slam scene. When Aneta, a deaf Israeli immigrant high school student, makes an extraordinary connection with a hearing Palestinian slam poet, they transcend personal and political divisions to generate a new form of poetry that speaks to both the hearing and the deaf. Director Judy Lieff will be on hand to discuss her film after the screening. Contact Dr. John Nichols, Director of Film Studies, jnichols@cnu.edu, for more information.

Young Professionals Power Panel

April 4th, 6:00-8:00 PM in the DSU Ballroom.

Presented by the Luter School of Business, Management 455 class; The Young Professionals Power Panel will feature a panel of six to eight young professionals in many different business areas. The panel will discuss their experiences and insights for life after graduation. Refreshments and drink tickets will be provided for people who are over 21. Business attire required.
