

34 b) In the spring of the first year, and during the fall or spring of the third and fifth years, probationary faculty meet with the department chair to receive verbal formative assessment and share any concerns.