

Susan Barber &lt;sbarber@cnu.edu&gt;

Piece of Public History: Careers and Internships in Museum Work, Oct. 7 at 12:30 in MCM 101

1 message

Personal Announcement - Do Not Reply

&lt;announcement@cnu.edu&gt;

Reply-To: lbondes@cnu.edu

To: faculty &lt;faculty@cnu.edu&gt;, employees &lt;employees@cnu.edu&gt;, students@cnu.edu

Wed, Oct 1, 2014 at 1:53 PM

Explore Careers in Museum Work and Internships!

PIECE OF PUBLIC HISTORY:
History in Action at The Mariners' Museum

PRESENTED BY THE PUBLIC HISTORY CENTER
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7 • 12:30-1:15 P.M. • MCMURRAN 101
PIZZA LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED BY THE CAH DEAN'S OFFICE
ALL STUDENTS AND MAJORS WELCOME!

 DR. ANNA GIBSON HOLLOWAY is vice president of museum collections and programs at The Mariners' Museum in Newport News, where she oversees curatorial, collections management, education, conservation, photography and licensing, USS Monitor Center, and exhibition design functions. She also holds the Archer M. Huntington Chair for the Study of Maritime History. A leading expert on the Union ironclad, she has lectured internationally on the subject and has published several articles in national magazines and journals, with a monograph forthcoming from Kent State University Press. Her exhibition "Ironclad Revolution" won the American Alliance of Museums' Excellence in Exhibitions Award.

Co-sponsored by
THE DEAN'S OFFICE IN THE COLLEGE OF THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES,
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, CENTER FOR CAREER PLANNING,
PHI ALPHA THETA, AND HISTORY CLUB

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT PUBLICHISTORYCENTER.CNU.EDU.

The Public History Center is hosting a new student workshop series, Piece of Public History. Tuesday, October 7 from 12:30-1:15 pm in MCM 101, Dr. Anna

Gibson Holloway (Vice President of Museum Collections and Programs at The Mariners' Museum) will be discussing careers and internships in museum work.

A pizza lunch will be provided by the CAH Dean's Office.

Please join us!