Be a Part of History!

In December 1973 the Collegiate Civitan Club of Christopher Newport College created a time capsule "to be opened December 2010." It was buried under the floor of the old Student Center between Discovery Cafe and the entrance to Library Services and was marked by a bronze plaque. Before the Student Center was demolished in 2007, the capsule was carefully removed and placed in a vault for safe keeping until now.

Please join with the University Community as we open the time capsule and establish a new time capsule for the next 50 years*.

Time Capsule Opening
Friday, December 3, 2010
4:30 p.m.
David Student Union, Main Street

*We will be accepting submissions of items to be considered for placement in the new time capsule to be buried May 2011. Items must be relevant to 2010/11 or CNU, meaningful, and no larger than an 8.5 x 11" sheet of paper and no more than 4" wide. If you have any questions about the submission process, please contact the Office of University Events at cnuevents@cnu.edu or 594-7856.

Please come and be a part of history at Christopher Newport and help continue our treasured tradition!
