The Dean Parks Colloquium Seminar Series will kick off next Wednesday, October 15th at 4:30 p.m. in the Freeman Center's Gaines Theater with Dr. Nicholas DiPasquale, Director of the Environmental Protection Agency's Chesapeake Bay Program. Dr. DiPasquale will speak about the multidisciplinary nature of environmental leadership among other salient topics.

This seminar event is free and open to the public, and is co-sponsored by the Office of Sponsored Programs and CNU's Green Team.

In addition, there is a "Careers with the EPA & Chesapeake Bay Program" session with Dr. DiPasquale and CNU Alumna, Samantha Watterson (EPA Environmental Management Fellow) in the Harrison Room of the David Student Union at 3 pm.

This career development event is sponsored by the Center for Career Planning.
