Kites for a Cause: 11:00am-4:00pm

CNU's Center for Community Engagement and Enactus invites you to participate in CNU's 2nd Annual Kites For A Cause on Wednesday, April 6th between 11:00am-4:00pm. Make a kite representing your service track, service club, or local volunteer organization and join us on the Great Lawn to fly them together and raise awareness for the causes you are passionate about and for the community organizations you work with. The winner will receive 100% of the money raised towards the philanthropy of their choosing! Our local community partners will also be in Tribble Plaza to provide information about their organizations.

This event is co-sponsored by students in CNU's Enactus club and the Center for Community Engagement. For more information, contact the Center at 4-7492 or visit us in the DSU across from the Captains Locker. If you would like to register email Cnu.enactus.president@gmail.com!

Baseball vs. Southern Virginia University: 3:00pm

Heading back to the diamond on Wednesday afternoon, the No. 14 Christopher Newport baseball team will host Southern Virginia University in Capital Athletic Conference action at 3:00 pm. CNU (21-8, 7-5) is looking to shake a three-game slide in conference play, taking on the Knights (7-19, 3-9) at Captains Park to close out the regular season series.

For more information please visit <http://cnusports.com/news/2016/4/5/no-14-cnu-baseball-hosts-southern-virginia-in-league-action-wednesday-at-3-00-pm.aspx>.

Men's Tennis vs. Salisbury University: 3:30pm

After over a week off from action, the 20th-ranked Christopher Newport men's tennis team is set to return in a pivotal conference matchup on Wednesday afternoon. The Captains (9-5, 3-0) will host Salisbury University (8-6, 3-1) at 3:30 pm at the Eyre Courts on campus, with conference tournament seeding implications weighing heavily on the match.

For more information please visit <http://cnusports.com/news/2016/4/5/no-20-cnu-mens-tennis-hosts-salisbury-in-key-cac-matchup-on-wednesday-at-3-30-pm.aspx>.

Softball vs. Meredith College: 4:00pm and 6:00pm

Christopher Newport softball is back at home Wednesday for a non-conference doubleheader. The fourth-ranked Captains take on the Avenging Angels of Meredith College. The first game is set to start at 4:00 p.m. at Captains Park. Keith Parr's squad is heading down the home stretch of the regular season, with six doubleheaders remaining before the Capital Athletic Conference Tournament. All six twin bills are set to be played over the next 11 days, with five scheduled at Captains Park. CNU is 23-4 overall and 5-1 in the CAC. The Captains are coming off four straight wins last weekend in Pennsylvania, with back-to-back sweeps of York and Penn State-Harrisburg.

For more information please visit <http://cnusports.com/news/2016/4/5/cnu-hosts-meredith-wednesday-in-softball-doubleheader-at-captains-park.aspx>.

Men's Lacrosse vs. Salisbury University: 5:00pm

Two days after earning the program's first-ever spot in the USILA National Coaches Poll, the 20th-ranked Christopher Newport men's lacrosse team will face stiff competition on Wednesday at 5 p.m. when CNU hosts No. 1 Salisbury in a top-20 showdown during a Capital Athletic Conference bout at Captains Turf Field.

Coming into the contest, Christopher Newport has a 10-2 record, including a 4-0 mark in conference action. Meanwhile, Salisbury sits at 13-0 on the season and 5-0 in CAC play.

AttachmentIJM Stand for Freedom

Violence today is the most urgent threat for millions of the poorest people. According to the United Nations, 4 billion people live outside the protection of the law. That means that their public justice systems, police, courts, and laws, are so broken, corrupt and dysfunctional, that there is nothing to shield them from violence.

For poor people throughout the developing world, this is everyday life. No defense. No protection. Nothing to hold back violence. Not just the violence that makes the headlines like war or genocide— but common, criminal violence: Slavery, Sex Trafficking, Sexual Violence, Police Brutality, Property Grabbing, Citizens Rights Abuse.

We're inspired every day by the students, parents, leaders and families who have made justice their mission. From students to senators, pastors to police officers— we're privileged to support, learn from and work alongside people like you to build this movement.

Come stand for freedom with the International Justice Mission chapter at CNU! We will be standing in shifts for 24 hours to raise money and awareness to end injustices such as sex trafficking, forced labor, and police brutality. We will have interactive art activities, educational displays, and free food for those who stand with us.

Stand For Freedom 2016 is all about doing what you can to help bring rescue to those trapped in slavery. Our goal together is to support 20 rescue operations. Let's work together! Together we can help end slavery for good. We hope to see you there!

Time: Monday, April 11th at 12 PM - Tuesday, April 12th at 12 PM

Location: Tribble Plaza

AttachmentPeople of Honor Nominations

Student Honor Council will now begin accepting nominations for people of honor at CNU! If you get a chance, please fill out the form below with nominations for both men and women at CNU whom you feel embody our honor code and strive to live with honor and integrity. The man and woman selected will each receive a brick and will have their names announced at the Student Leadership Awards. Thank you all so much for taking the time to do this!

Finding Your Port of Call

Thursday, April 7, 12:30 PM—1:30 PM or Wednesday, April 13, 3:00 PM—4:00 PM, McMurran 110

Deciding where to go to college was one thing, but what are you going to do now that you're here? Which major will you choose? Which career? What are you going to do after college? Finding Your Port of Call is about navigating all of the possibilities by focusing on your interests and empowering you with the information to make the choice that is right for you.

China on the World Stage: Understanding China's Military Rise and Human Rights Record

This Thursday (April 7), the Reiff Center and the Center for American Studies will be co-hosting a panel session titled "China on the World Stage: Understanding China's Military Rise and Human Rights Record." The event is scheduled for 6:00-7:15 pm in McMurran Hall 101.

The panelists include two world-class China scholars:

- Dr. Larry Wortzel, former Army intelligence officer and eight-term Commissioner of the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission of the United States Congress.
- Yawei Liu, Director of the China Program at the Carter Center.

Contact shannon.combs@cnu.edu for further information!

AttachmentPoet Laureate of California

Dear students, faculty and staff,

On April 19, the Phi Beta Kappa faculty at CNU will welcome poet Dana Gioia for two special events.

At 11am he will lead a discussion on writing poetry in the Blechman Room of Tribble Library.

At 1:30pm he will deliver a lecture in Gaines Theater entitled "Why Beauty Matters---Not Just in Art but in Politics and Society."

Both events are free and open to the public. The lecture counts as an Honors campus intellectual activity as well as a PLP Passport event.

Dana Gioia is the Judge Widney Professor of Poetry and Public Culture at the University of Southern California. From 2001 to 2009 he served as chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts, where he brought enormous public attention to the importance of reading and arts participation. Gioia has published five full-length collections of poetry, as well as eight chapbooks. His poetry collection, Interrogations at Noon, won the 2002 American Book Award. An influential critic as well, Gioia's 1991 volume Can Poetry Matter?, which was a finalist for the National Book Critics Circle award, is credited with helping to revive the role of poetry in American public culture. In 2014 Gioia won the Aiken-Taylor Award for lifetime achievement in American poetry, and in 2015 he was appointed the State Poet Laureate of California by Governor Jerry Brown.

For more information on Gioia, please visit <http://danagioia.com/>
