Have Plastic Bags Lying Around? Donate them to Crochet for a Cause

Do your parents have a stash of plastic grocery bags hiding around in the house with nothing to use them for? Do you have your own stash hiding out in the corner of your room? If you answered yes to any of these questions, bring them back to campus because Crochet for a Cause will be collecting plastic grocery bags for the rest of the semester after we return from Fall Break! We are using the plastic bags to make sleeping mats for the homeless to have during the winter months and need lots of plastic bags to make them!

You can drop them off in Freeman 202 on Thursday, Oct. 13th between 12:30 - 1:30, and also to the History Department on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 11:30 - 1. On Tuesday, October 18th, we will be having a Bag Drive in the DSU Breezeway from 11:30 - 1:30 where you can drop them off, as well. We will provide more locations and dates as the weeks go on.

We hope you can help us help the homeless! Any questions can be sent to our email at crochet4cause@cnu.edu

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. - #SurvivorWeek

#REDgoesPINK all month long! Beginning next week we will feature stories of breast cancer survivors on our Instagram & Facebook pages. If you are or know someone who is a breast cancer survivor and would like to have their story shared, email us at dst@cnu.edu by Sunday, Oct. 9th with the subject line #SurvivorWeek

APO Collecting Children's Books

Alpha Phi Omega will be collecting children's books for Elizabeth's Book Drive. This organization provides new or gently used children's books to those in the hospital or orphanages. Over Fall Break please collect children's books that you wish to donate! Contact our VP of service at jordan.weisberg.13@cnu.edu about donations

Campus Programs and Announcements

Safe Zone Training

Interested in learning about the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ+) communities? Join us by registering below. We will explore attitudes and beliefs about sexual orientation and gender identity - and how heterosexism, gender normativity, and trans/homophobia negatively impact the lives of LGBTQ individuals. Participants will learn about available resources and how to become an effective ally. (Open to Faculty, Staff, and Students)

When: Friday, October 21 from 1:00pm - 4:30pm

Location: Freeman 202

Register at: <https://goo.gl/forms/tOrC3lbVa7ZvOtC53>

Five Dollar Student Rush Tickets to see enra

enra

Sunday, October 9 @ 6:30 p.m.

Ferguson Center's Diamonstein Concert Hall

Student Tickets: $5 (bring I.D. to Ticket Office)

Japanese performing arts company enra combines stunning digital animation with live dance. The members of enra are experts in the genres of martial arts, ballet, animation dance, juggling and street dance. When the video art and choreography synchronize, the show frees the audiences imaginations from the physical limitations of space and gravity.

Philosophy Pizza

Join the Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies for the first Philosophy Pizza of the semester:

Thursday, October 13, 2016

1220 pm - 1:20 pm

MCM164

TITLE

No "Little-t" Truths:

Socrates against Relativism

TOPIC

The Greek philosopher Protagoras denied there are "big-T," absolute truth--there's only what's true for you, and what's true for me. But in Plato's Theaetetus, Socrates defends absolute truth by turning Protagoras' own view against him.

Come on and join us to hear about the twists and turn of Socrates's ingenious argument and eat some pizza!
