

Vision 2008-2009: To enhance the quality of faculty life at Christopher Newport University in order to recruit and retain superior faculty; to support exemplary teaching and learning, significant scholarship and meaningful service; and to participate in the design and implementation of policies and procedures that will enhance CNU's reputation as it evolves into the preeminent public liberal arts and sciences university it aspires to be and is now becoming.