Dear Faculty,

Welcome Back! I hope your summer was relaxing and restful.

The Office of the Provost has worked throughout the summer to plan Getting Started Week activities that will challenge and inspire you. The week will begin with President Tribble's Welcome to Faculty and Staff at 9:00 am on Monday, August 17th in the Ferguson Center for the Arts Concert Hall.

I have attached a memo from Provost Padilla discussing Getting Started Week events as well as a schedule for the week and information about academic standing committee meetings planned for Tuesday, August 18th.

The University Faculty Conference on Teaching, Learning, Scholarship and Research will take place on Tuesday afternoon in the Tribble Library beginning at 2:30 pm. You will receive additional information about the conference soon!

The following link will provide easy access to the 2009-2010 EVAL 1, Peer Review, Annual Evaluation and Merit Evaluation Calendar.

I will communicate 2009-2010 GSW updates to you as I learn of them. I look forward to seeing you on August 17th!
