

LUTER SCHOOL OF BUSINESS PRESENTS:

SLICE OF LIFE

Smithfield

Good food. Responsibly.®

Justin Hardwick, Senior Business Manager
& A Team of CNU Alumni Colleagues

“Work Hard, Play Hard: Life of a Smithfield Employee”

Smithfield employs over 50,000 employees worldwide and has sales over $14 billion annually. The packed meats group operates under popular brands including Smithfield, Eckrich, Nathan's Famous, Armour, John Morrell, Gwaltney, Kretschmar, Curly's, and Carando. In 2013, Smithfield Foods was purchased by Chinese holding company Shuanghui International Holdings Ltd. The company is now traded publicly on the Hong Kong exchange. As a vertically integrated company, the Smithfield Foods controls the entire supply chain, from genetics to packing and is the largest pork producer in the world.

Why should you attend?

- See how business leaders are dealing with real challenges & opportunities within their organization and industry
- Learn about business leaders' experience in their field
- Be exposed to a wide array of career paths you may not have considered
- Learn in a relaxed setting ...with pizza!

Tuesday, September 13, 12:15-1:30 p.m.

Luter 121

LUNCH PROVIDED