I am pleased to announce the appointment of Rob Lange as our new Dean of Admissions.

Rob joins us today from East Carolina University (ECU) where he has held various positions in the Office of Admissions over the past 11 years — most recently as the Senior Associate Director of Admissions. Prior to his tenure at ECU, Rob served as a Senior Admissions Officer for two years at his alma mater Daemen College (NY), where he also starred in basketball and was later inducted into the Athletics Wall of Fame. Prior to his time as a Senior Admissions Officer at Daemen, Rob served as Sports Information Director and Assistant Men's Basketball Coach.

Rob earned a Master of Science degree from SUNY College at Buffalo in Student Personnel Administration. He has a deep appreciation for liberal learning and is passionate about creating good citizens and leaders.

I am confident that Rob Lange will contribute immensely to our success and hope you will give him a warm welcome to CNU.
