Keenly modernized from Jane Austen's well-known novel, this is an exploration of finding one's perfectly imperfect love. Fitzwilliam is a proud gentry and Elizabeth is prejudiced against the aristocracy: with tongue-in-cheek spirit, they both learn to overcome. Enjoy this classic comedy of heartfelt fun.

17-19, 2025
Studio Theatre

One of the greatest Russian plays ever written is reimagined to resonate with contemporary audiences who understand the ennui of surviving isolation. Performed in an unusually intimate style, a celebrated professor and his new beautiful wife return to his pastoral roots, creating a suite of ordinary people who are comically inept at managing their lives.
