

Resolution 2005-16

Whereas Dr. Graham M. Schweig has a prolific record of scholarship comprised of more than 50 books, book chapters, articles and presented papers, and

Whereas the excellence of Dr. Schweig's scholarship is evidenced by his publications with renowned academic presses including the Princeton and Oxford University Presses, and

Whereas Dr. Schweig's dedication to his department and university has been demonstrated by his establishment of the Indic Studies Concentration, the Bengel Lecture Series, and

Whereas Dr. Schweig is a devoted colleague who has worked to foster and enhance scholarship among his peers, and

Whereas Dr. Schweig is a well-respected teacher as is evidenced by his consistently exemplary student reviews,

Therefore be it resolved that the Faculty Senate of Christopher Newport University recognizes and commends Dr. Graham Schweig's contributions as teacher, scholar and colleague and deems him a highly meritorious and integral member of our academic community.