Please join the Office of Student Activities, the Department of Fine Arts, CHECS, the Multicultural Student Association, Kappa Pi, and Sharing Awareness for Intercultural Living (SAIL) for an Evening with Candy Chang on Wednesday, October 3, 2012 at 6:30 p.m. in the Ferguson Center, Concert Hall.

"Candy Chang is an artist, designer, and urban planner who believes in the potential of introspection and collective wisdom in public space to help us lead better lives. Many of her projects spark conversations in public space and provided people with easy and innovative ways to have a voice. Recent work includes Before I Die, where she transformed an abandoned house in New Orleans into an The Atlantic called "one of the most creative community projects ever."
