Please join the department of Modern and Classical Languages and Literatures for a free screening and post-film round table discussion of the sensational 2008 documentary Tough Being Loved by Jerks, an in-depth look at the trial and international controversy surrounding the French satirical newspaper Charlie Hebdo! Praised at Cannes and in the pages of Time, it is now being screened across France once again in the wake of the recent tragedies in Paris. Running time: 102 minutes. Directed by Daniel Leconte.

Free of charge and open to the public.

Where: 101 McMurrin, Tuesday, April 7th at 7PM.

There will be a post-film discussion with Dr. Michael Mulryan, Director of the French Program at CNU, Diana Obeid, Co-Director of Middle East and North Africa Studies Program at CNU, and Rabbi Séverine Sokol, a native of Lyon, France, and spiritual leader at Temple Sinai in Newport News.
