TNT Trivia is back!

Your favorite Thursday Night activity is back - Thursday Night Trivia! Just a reminder that we're running things a little bit differently this year with trivia happening on the third Thursday of each month at 8 PM in the DSU Crow's Nest. Join us this week on Thursday, January 19!

Your team of up to 6 will still be able to take home Captain's Cash if you win and everyone will be entered into the raffle. New this year we will be featuring a free treat at each of the events. This week there will be free Brownie Sundaes for all in attendance. Make sure you don't miss an event because the overall team winners for the year will be awarded some Trivia Champ swag in April.

Study up and we'll see you Thursday!

CNU in Scotland Fall Semester Interest Meeting

Join us in MCM 164 this Thursday, January 19 at 12:30 to learn more about the upcoming Fall 2017 semester in Scotland.

Students will take one course with Dr. Andrew Falk and the remaining courses from the University of Glasgow. The program is open for application to students who will have at least Sophomore standing by the Fall term and a 3.0 GPA.

The University of Glasgow has courses in Psychology, History, Biology, English and Scottish Literature, Business and more!

If you cannot attend the meeting, please contact the study abroad office in MCM 161 or at studyabroad@cnu.edu
The office has advising for Scotland M-F between 2-5pm.

Applications are available online at: <http://cnu.abroadoffice.net/Scotland.html>
The deadline for the Fall 2017 applications is February 15, 2017.

Shabak 'My Friend'

Join us for a screening of Sahbak ('My Friend')! This documentary follows the story of an improbable friendship between two key women, on either side of the Palestinian-Israeli relationship. They have had a rare 40-year friendship and been at the nexus of many interesting aspects of the difficult history between Palestine and Israel. The film will explore the friendship between these two women as well as others on either side of the divide with The Abraham Path as a back-drop and mechanism to continue the dialogue and seek concrete solutions to the long standing conflict.

Located in the Studio Theater Hall of the Ferguson Center, on Thursday, January 19, from 6-8 pm. It is free and an Honors and PLP event.

Thomson Square @ the Ferguson Center - $5 tickets!

Student tickets for Thomson Square are only $5! Please present your CNU ID at the ticket office.

Saturday, January 28, 2017 @ 8:00 p.m.

Diamonstein Concert Hall

The duo of Keifer and Shawna Thompson are a force to be reckoned with in today's country music landscape. International stars Thomson Square has topped the radio charts with hits "Are You Gonna Kiss Me or Not," "If I Didn't Have You" and "Everything I Shouldn't Be Thinking About." The barefaced, emotionally charged and gutsy sound from this married duo has been honored by both the Academy of Country Music and the Country Music Association as "Vocal Duo of the Year" in 2012 and 2013 respectively. In all, they have scored three No. 1 hits, six Top 20 hits, seven mainstream industry awards and more than 25 industry award nominations.
