CHRISTOPHER NEWPORT UNIVERSITY
2012-13 DEAN WILLIAM PARKS COLLOQUIA

America's China and China's America: Rethinking the Past 2 1/2 Centuries

Dr. Dong Wang is professor of contemporary Chinese history and director of the Centre for East Asian Studies at the University of Turku in Finland. She is a research associate of the Fairbank Center for Chinese Studies at Harvard University and vice president of the Historical Society for Twentieth-Century China based in the U.S.

Drawing on her new book, Dr. Wang will discuss how the U.S. and China have taken root in each other – countries that became great world powers over almost two-and-a-half centuries. Wang will discuss four perceptions: the China market vs. the U.S. open door, red China vs. imperial America, the return of China vs. the allure of America and the China issue vs. the contentious hegemon.

Wednesday, March 27
4 p.m.
