Standing Solid

Luter Atrium, Tuesday (9/27), 12:30pm-1:30pm

The Office of Diversity & Inclusion will create a safe space for expression within the CNU Community in the Luter Atrium this upcoming Tuesday. In the midst of this hour we will have an interlocked moment of silence, with sixty seconds of the day dedicated to the lives taken and the leadership necessary to create a campus and nation "of respect and mutual trust." This is the opportunity for expression is for students to come share moments of fear and discrimination, and for all Captains to join in a moment of solidarity in recognition of pervasive racism.

This is not a debate, but the place to recognize the problems and dangers faced in our own country and campus, and stand in solidarity together!

"Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?' "

- Martin Luther King Jr.
