Philosophy Cafe: 12:20-1:20pm

Please join Philosophy and Religious Studies for their Philosophy Cafe' on Thursday, March 24, 2016 from 1220-1320 in MCM101.

This Cafe's theme is based on Jungle Book. A cast of philosophers and religious figures will debate the proper place for Mowgli.

Bagheera is the Confucian whose interpretation of Nature insists that Mowgli go back to the "man village," his natural place in the world

Baloo, on the other hand, is Chuang Tzu interpreting the way of nature as a flow; Mowgli's place is where he is as he engages in action less action.

Chuang Tzu, along with Aristotle, Spinoza, Thoreau and other philosophers will be present for the discussion.

Pizza and beverages will be served.

Resume Writing - Highlighting Your Student Organization Involvement: 12:30pm and 3:00pm

Thursday, March 24, 12:30—1:30 PM and 3:00—4:00 PM, Freeman 201

Your involvement in clubs, Greek Life, community service, athletics and work on campus provide you with opportunities to develop valuable skills for securing internships, full-time employment and graduate school admission. This session will help you explore the value of these opportunities to your career plans and how to highlight your experiences on your resume.

Labyrinth Walk: 2:30-4:30pm

A labyrinth will be available in the Plaza on Thursday, March 24 from 2:30-4:30 in the Tribble Plaza. The labyrinth is an ancient form of walking meditation or prayer. Walking the labyrinth is a great way to de-stress, clear your mind, get centered, or spend a few minutes in quiet contemplation. This Thursday is Maundy Thursday, the day on which we remember the commandment to love one another as God has loved us. Come and walk the labyrinth as an act of love. Sponsored by Episcopal Campus Ministry.

Phi Beta Kappa/Dean Parks Lecture Series: Art Historian, Dr. Robert Hobbs: 4:00pm

Thursday, March 24, the Phi Beta Kappa faculty committee will host its third Dean Parks Colloquium speaker of the semester. Art historian and professor, Dr. Robert Hobbs from Virginia Commonwealth University, will discuss the work of a contemporary German painter, Anselm Kiefer, in the context of German nationalism and the WWII-era in a talk titled "Anselm Kiefer and the Burden of German Cultural Nationalism." The talk is scheduled for 4 pm in the Ferguson Music and Theatre Hall.

Upcoming Events

CAB Presents...Movie: Spectre

Come out to see CAB's showing of the last James Bond movie, SPECTRE, and as always, we will have FREE POPCORN for the movie!!

Synopsis: A cryptic message from the past sends James Bond on a rogue mission to Mexico City and eventually Rome, where he meets Lucia Sciarra (Monica Bellucci), the beautiful and forbidden widow of an infamous criminal. Bond infiltrates a secret meeting and uncovers the existence of the sinister organisation known as Spectre. Meanwhile back in London, Max Denbigh (Andrew Scott), the new head of the Centre for National Security, questions Bond's actions and challenges the relevance of MI6, led by M (Ralph Fiennes). Bond covertly enlists Moneypenny (Naomie Harris) and Q (Ben Whishaw) to help him seek out Madeleine Swann (Léa Seydoux), the daughter of his old nemesis Mr White (Jesper Christensen), who may hold the clue to untangling the web of Spectre. As the daughter of an assassin, she understands Bond in a way most others cannot. As Bond ventures towards the heart of Spectre, he learns of a chilling connection between himself and the enemy he seeks, played by Christoph Waltz.

Chinese Culture Day

We are pleased to announce that on the afternoon of Saturday, March 26, Christopher Newport University's Asian Studies program, in conjunction with the Confucius Institute of the College of William and Mary, will present our second annual CHINESE CULTURE DAY, an interactive celebration of traditional Chinese art, music and much else to be held on the second floor of CNU's David Student Union between 1 and 3 o'clock PM.

Teachers and volunteers from the Confucius Institute, along with students from CNU's Asian Studies program and E.A.S.T. student organization, will be on hand to guide visitors through exhibitions and demonstrations of traditional music and musical instruments, calligraphy, paper cutting, ethnic dress, chopsticks, tea, and athletic activities including martial arts, ping-pong, and "rubber jump rope."

The celebration will also include a series of musical and other performances by Confucius Institute volunteers and community members.

The event is free of charge. We sincerely hope you and your families will be able to attend for all or any portion of the afternoon! We would also appreciate your help spreading the word about this year's Chinese Culture Day at CNU to all who may be interested.

Notion of Youth Presents: "I'm On A Terrace"

On November 13, 2015 the world mourned together as members of the Islamic State murdered 130 people in Paris, France. As thinkers, feelers, doers preparing to enter into this chaotic world, how do we react in a public, positive manner? A group of senior theatre artists, Notion of Youth, dedicate a devised theatrical event to the memory of the victims taken from this world too soon. Please join us in this moving testimony to standing together in times of crisis. We all stand with Paris. We all stand with Syria. We all stand with Brussels.

When: Saturday, March 26; 8pm

Where: Auxiliary Gym, Freeman Center

Admission is free. Donations will be accepted for the International Rescue Committee. Learn more about the work they are doing at: <http://www.rescue.org/>

The Mask You Live In Film Screening

Join the College of Social Sciences, the SAVE Committee, and PLP for a film screening of The Mask You Live In on Monday, March 28th at 7:30PM in MCM 101. The documentary follows boys and young men as they struggle to stay true to themselves while negotiating America's narrow definition of masculinity. Experts in neuroscience, psychology, sociology, sports, education, and media also weigh in, offering empirical evidence of the "boy crisis" and tactics to combat it.

The film is 90 minutes long and will be followed by a short panel discussion. Counts as a PLP Passport Destination

Hey Class of 2016 Captains! We would love for you to send us pictures of your favorite memories at Christopher Newport; events you've attended, CNU traditions, trips abroad, or just fun times hanging out with your roommates, etc. All photos are welcome but please try and send photos with 3+ students in them. The more photos the merrier. Thank you all in advance! Let the countdown to graduation continue. Email cnufellows@gmail.com with submissions.
