LUTER LECTURE SERIES

GPA ASIDE:

Five Non-Academic Skills Essential
for a Successful Career in Business

.....

Marsha Hudgins became sole stockholder of Hudgins Contracting in 2011 and was appointed CEO in 2012. She received her MBA from Old Dominion University in 1976 and started her first business venture in Newport News the following year. Hudgins has spent nearly 30 years consulting with small business startups and large corporate entities across the region in targeting and managing growth opportunities. Hudgins Contracting did the site preparation and infrastructure for CNU's new Greek housing and also provided the site work and infrastructure development for the new Ferguson showroom and the Port Warwick campus in Newport News.
