Dear Students, Faculty and Staff,

Come one, come all to this Tournées French Film Festival

Five Exciting Recent French Films will be shown with a little something for everyone: action, drama, comedy, and animation/fantasy!

All screenings are free with CNU ID, begin at 7PM in the new Gaines or the Studio Theater on Mondays from September 16th until October 14th, and are followed by discussion open to everyone!

See more info and find links to previews at: <http://www.cnu.edu/media/Tournees/index.asp>

SHOWING MONDAY: Film #3, The Rabbi's Cat (Le Chat du rabbin), an animated comedy directed by Joan Sfar and Antoine Delesvaux.

Wryly philosophical, beautifully drawn, and meticulously detailed, this animated film based on co-director Joann Sfar's popular comic-book series takes place during the '20s and '30s in Algiers, where said cat is preparing for his bar mitzvah. Having previously devoured his master's parrot, the remarkable, if hairless and giant-eared, feline at the center of the film now has the power of speech, which he uses, as a devout soul should, to constantly question and probe his faith during his and his master's voyage to Ethiopia.

Support for the Tournées Festival is provided by

The French Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs / The Centre National de la Cinématographie

The Florence Gould Foundation / The Grand Marnier Foundation / highbrow entertainment.
