

Alpha Chi Sigma Constitution & Bylaws

2012-2014

23 August 2012

This reorganized edition of the Constitution and Bylaws of Alpha Chi Sigma Fraternity was prepared at the direction of the 39th Biennial Conclave of the Fraternity, 1988, by a committee consisting of Grand Parliamentarian James Koewler, Jr., BN '81, as chairman; John R. Mattson, BN '79; and Eileen Wiseman, BF '86; under the supervision of the Supreme Council.

It was adopted by unanimous vote of the Grand Chapter at the 40th Biennial Conclave of the Fraternity in August 1990. Amendments adopted by the Grand Chapter through the 50th Biennial Conclave have been incorporated. The edited wording of the document was approved by unanimous vote of the Supreme Council, Proposition 4412, on 23 August 2012.

Patrick J. Johanns, AO '81
Grand Recorder

This document replaces all previous editions as the official governing document of the Alpha Chi Sigma Fraternity.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I - GENERAL ORGANIZATION

Section A - Objects

The Objects of this Fraternity shall be:

1. To bind its members with a tie of true and lasting friendship.
2. To strive for the advancement of chemistry both as a science and as a profession.
3. To aid its members by every honorable means in the attainment of their ambitions as chemists throughout their mortal lives.

Section B - Membership

1. Classification of Members - The members of this Fraternity shall be of two types.
 - a. Collegiate members are those who are enrolled as members of Collegiate Chapters and have been in a degree-granting program within the past 12 months. Active Collegiate members shall be as reported by each Collegiate Chapter. All Collegiate members are collectively to be known as the Collegiate Branch.
 - b. Professional members are those who are not Collegiate members. Active Professional Members are those who pay annual voluntary Professional Contributions or have been designated a permanent active Professional Member. All Professional members are collectively to be known as the Professional Branch.
 - c. A member may not be simultaneously in the Collegiate Branch and the Professional Branch.
 - d. The Grand Collegiate Alchemist may make individual exceptions to a member's Branch status when deemed in the best interest of a Collegiate Chapter.
2. Qualifications for Membership -
 - a. A candidate for Collegiate membership shall be a student of chemistry who intends to pursue a career in pure or applied chemistry.
 - b. A candidate for Professional membership shall either have at least a bachelor's degree in chemistry or be a properly qualified chemist.
 - c. Reference to chemistry and chemists in connection with membership qualifications shall be interpreted as including chemists, chemical engineers, and members of allied professions in which chemistry predominates.
 - d. A candidate for membership shall be professionally acceptable to the Grand Chapter.
 - e. Membership shall not be restricted on any other basis.
3. Initiation - Candidates elected to membership shall be initiated according to the official Fraternity ritual.
4. Membership for Life - Every member shall be granted the privileges of the Fraternity, and shall assume the obligations of membership, for life.

- 1 5. Expulsion - Any member may be expelled for violating the oath of membership, for 2 dishonorable or improper conduct, for neglecting to meet indebtedness to the 3 Fraternity, for disloyalty to the Fraternity, or when that person's membership becomes
4 injurious to the Fraternity.
5

6 Section C - Chapters
7

- 8 1. Classification of Chapters - The chapters of this Fraternity shall be of three types.
9 a. The Grand Chapter
10 b. Collegiate Chapters
11 c. Professional Chapters
12
13 2. The Collegiate Chapters and Professional Chapters shall be subordinate to the Grand 14 Chapter.
15

16 Section D - Ancient Customs
17

- 18 1. The ancient customs of this Fraternity shall consist of:
19 a. The Objects of the Fraternity.
20 b. The qualifications for membership.
21 c. The insignia of the order, which shall be the badge of membership, the colors, the 22 flower, and the coat of arms, as described in the ritual.
23 d. The means of recognition of the order, which shall consist of outward signs (a 24 dialogue, a handclasp, a knock, and a whistle), as described in the ritual.
25
26 2. The ancient customs of this Fraternity shall never change.
27

28 ARTICLE II - THE GRAND CHAPTER
29

30 Section A - Membership
31

- 32 1. The Grand Chapter shall consist of the Grand Chapter officers, the District
33 Counselors, the Professional Representatives, and the Master Alchemist of each
34 active Collegiate Chapter and the President of each active Professional Chapter, or in 35 conclave each accredited delegate.
36
37 2. Each member of the Grand Chapter, except the Grand Recorder and the Assistant
38 Grand Recorder, shall be a voting member of the Grand Chapter. The voting
39 members of the Grand Chapter shall be the Corporate Voting Members of Alpha Chi
40 Sigma Fraternity, Inc.
41

42 Section B - Jurisdiction and Duties
43

- 44 1. The Grand Chapter shall:
45 a. Make laws for governing the Fraternity and guiding its members in the attainment
46 of the Objects of the Fraternity.
47 b. Elect the Supreme Council.
48 c. Perpetuate the Fraternity and plan for its expansion.
49 d. Meet in conclaves.
50 e. Fix and assess pledge fees and lifetime membership fees.
51 f. Establish the Fraternity ritual.

- g. Maintain an Alpha Chi Sigma Reserve Fund for the purpose of receiving contributions and other monies for investment and for meeting the financial needs of the Fraternity.
 - h. Maintain a House Fund for the purpose of receiving monies contributed for loans to Housing Corporations established in accordance with the Bylaws
2. The Grand Chapter may, by a three-fourths majority, overrule the revocation of a charter upon the appeal of a chapter which has had its charter revoked by the Supreme Council.

Section C - Officers

1. Grand Chapter officers shall be:
 - a. Grand Master Alchemist - President.
 - b. Grand Collegiate Alchemist - a Vice President.
 - c. Grand Professional Alchemist - a Vice President.
 - d. Grand Master of Ceremonies - a Vice President.
 - e. Grand Recorder - Secretary/Treasurer.
2. The Supreme Council may also appoint an Assistant Grand Recorder as a Grand Chapter Officer.

Section D - Duties of the Grand Chapter Officers

1. The Grand Master Alchemist shall preside over Grand Chapter and Supreme Council proceedings, vote on Grand Chapter and Supreme Council legislation, have general supervisory authority over the activities of the Grand Chapter Officers, care for matters of discipline, direct the installation of Collegiate Chapters, and sign charters and membership certificates. The Grand Master Alchemist shall, with concurrence of the Supreme Council, appoint committees of the Grand Chapter and of the Supreme Council, fill vacancies in the Supreme Council, and appoint District Counselors.
2. The Grand Collegiate Alchemist shall supervise the activities of the Collegiate chapters and of the District Counselors in their relations with the Collegiate chapters, adjudicate disagreements regarding Collegiate Branch membership requirements, assist the Grand Master Alchemist, vote on Grand Chapter and Supreme Council legislation, and sign charters.
3. The Grand Professional Alchemist shall supervise the activities of the Professional chapters and of the District Counselors in their relations with the Professional chapters, direct fund-raising and development activities, assist the Grand Master Alchemist, vote on Grand Chapter and Supreme Council legislation, and sign charters.
4. The Grand Master of Ceremonies shall be the ceremonial officer of the Fraternity, supervise the installation of chapters at the direction of the Grand Master Alchemist, administer the ritual of the Fraternity, have charge of Fraternity regalia, assist the Grand Master Alchemist, vote on Grand Chapter and Supreme Council legislation, and sign charters.

5. The Grand Recorder shall carry out the duties of a Secretary and Treasurer, and shall sign charters. The Grand Recorder shall act as historian unless the Supreme Council appoints a Grand Historian.
6. The Assistant Grand Recorder, if any, shall assist the Grand Recorder and shall assume the duties of Grand Recorder when the Grand Recorder is unavailable. The Assistant Grand Recorder need not be a member of Alpha Chi Sigma Fraternity. If a non-member, the Assistant Grand Recorder shall neither witness nor participate in any part of the ritual associated with initiations, but may attend conclaves and Supreme Council meetings and may, if invited, attend any meetings of subordinate chapters.

Section E - Conclaves

Meetings of the Grand Chapter shall be called "Conclaves" and shall be held at least once every two calendar years unless the Supreme Council shall adopt a resolution fixing another time. Each will be held at the principal place of business of the Fraternity, in the City of Madison, in the State of Wisconsin, unless the Supreme Council shall adopt a resolution fixing another place.

ARTICLE III - SUPREME COUNCIL

Section A - Membership

The Grand Master Alchemist, Grand Collegiate Alchemist, Grand Professional Alchemist, and Grand Master of Ceremonies shall constitute the Supreme Council, which shall act as the Board of Directors of Alpha Chi Sigma Fraternity, Inc.

Section B - Jurisdiction and Duties

The Supreme Council is empowered to:

1. Transact business of the Fraternity.
2. Make expenditures from the Grand Treasury, including the investment of funds of every kind.
3. Fix the time and place for conclave.
4. Issue Collegiate and Professional Chapter charters.
5. Revoke or suspend the charter of any subordinate chapter.
6. Meet at least once each year, or at the call of the Grand Master Alchemist, or upon the written request of three members of the Supreme Council.
7. Expel members for cause.
8. Publish a journal.

- 1 9. Choose a Certified Public Accountant to audit annually the accounts of the Grand
2 Recorder.
- 3
- 4 10. Remove from office any subordinate chapter officer who fails to discharge the duties
5 of the office in the proper manner.
- 6

7 ARTICLE IV - COLLEGIATE CHAPTERS

8

9 Section A - Establishment

10

- 11 1. Eight or more students or members of the instructional staff of any college or 12 university that meet the qualifications for membership, may petition the Fraternity for 13 a charter.
- 14
- 15 2. A joint charter may be granted to petitioners from two or more institutions existing in 16 the same locality.
- 17
- 18 3. Properly qualified alumni members of the organization represented by the petitioners 19 may join with them in applying for a charter.
- 20

21 Section B - Chapter Identification

22

- 23 1. The Collegiate Chapters shall be designated in the Fraternity records in the order of 24 their installation by the letters of the Greek alphabet. The twenty-fifth chapter shall 25 be known as Alpha Alpha, the forty-ninth as Beta Alpha, and so on.
- 26
- 27 2. The original Greek letter designation for a chapter that has had its charter revoked or 28 has otherwise been declared inactive shall be reserved and used for the chapter if it is 29 reactivated.
- 30

31 Section C - Jurisdiction and Duties

32

33 The Collegiate Chapters shall:

34

- 35 1. Have the sole right of initiating members into the Fraternity, except at the installation 36 of new chapters.

- 43 4. Require attendance of Collegiate members at chapter meetings.
- 44
- 45 5. Maintain and keep chapter records and property in good condition.
- 46
- 47 6. Preserve the property of the Grand Chapter entrusted to them.
- 48
- 49 7. Report to the Supreme Council, the Grand Chapter and the District Counselors upon 50 request.
- 51

- 1 8. Adopt bylaws for their own governance, provided these are in accord with the laws of
- 2 the Fraternity.
- 3
- 4 9. Levy and collect dues for the support of the local chapters and the Grand Chapter.
- 5
- 6 10. Institute and carry out expulsion proceedings when necessary.
- 7
- 8 11. Have the power to bond the office of Chapter Treasurer.
- 9

10 Section D - Officers

- 11
- 12 1. The officers of each Collegiate Chapter shall be a Master Alchemist, Vice Master
- 13 Alchemist, Reporter, Recorder, Treasurer, Master of Ceremonies, Alumni Secretary,
- 14 and such other officers as the chapter may desire.
- 15
- 16 2. The officers, with the exception of the Alumni Secretary, must be active members of
- 17 the chapter.
- 18

19 Section E - Duties of Officers

- 20
- 21 1. The Master Alchemist shall:
- 22 a. Be the executive officer of the chapter.
- 23 b. Preside at chapter meetings.
- 24 c. Commit to memory the parts of the ritual assigned to the Master Alchemist.
- 25 d. Appoint such committees as necessary for the efficient operation of the chapter.
- 26 e. Be responsible for the condition of the chapter and the proper discharge of the
- 27 duties of its officers.
- 28 f. Be responsible for the vote of the chapter in the Grand Chapter during the period
- 29 between conclaves.
- 30
- 31 2. The Vice Master Alchemist shall:
- 32 a. Assist the Master Alchemist.
- 33 b. Act as Master Alchemist in the absence of the Master Alchemist.
- 34 c. Supervise all pledge functions.
- 35 d. Arrange for the chapter's Professional Recognition Ceremony or Professional
- 36 Induction Ceremony when any chapter members are to join the Professional
- 37 Branch.
- 38
- 39 3. The Reporter shall:
- 40 a. Carry on the chapter's correspondence with the Grand Chapter.
- 41 b. Report elections, initiations, deaths, expulsion proceedings, changes in status of
- 42 members, election of officers, and matters of record as required by the Supreme
- 43 Council.
- 44
- 45 4. The Recorder shall:
- 46 a. Keep the minutes of the chapter meetings.

 - 7 standardized financial statement of the chapter's financial condition including a
 - 8 detailed report of delinquencies.
 - 9
- 10 6. The Master of Ceremonies shall:
 - 11 a. Organize and supervise all chapter ceremonial activities except the Professional
 - 12 Recognition Ceremony and Professional Induction Ceremony.
 - 13 b. Be responsible for the safekeeping and good condition of the regalia entrusted to
 - 14 the chapter.
 - 15 c. Keep and account for all copies of the ritual lent to the chapter and be responsible
 - 16 to the Grand Chapter for them.
 - 17
- 18 7. The Alumni Secretary shall:
 - 19 a. Assist the chapter in its professional activities.
 - 20 b. Gather and preserve the historical data of the chapter and make an annual report
 - 21 to the Grand Historian.
 - 22 c. Solicit information from alumni for the official journal of the
 - 23 Fraternity.
 - 24 d. Report promptly all changes of address of chapter alumni to the Office of the
 - 25 Grand Recorder.
 - 26 e. May assist the Master Alchemist in familiarizing new chapter officers with their
 - 27 duties.
 - 28

29 Section F - Chapter Advisor

30
31 Each Collegiate Chapter shall have a Chapter Advisor appointed by the District
32 Counselor upon the chapter's recommendation.

33 Section G - Conclave Delegates

34
35
36 Each Collegiate Chapter shall send a delegate to each conclave.

37 ARTICLE V - PROFESSIONAL CHAPTERS

38 Section A - Establishment

39
40
41
42 Eight or more active Professional members who live in one locality may petition the 43 Supreme Council for a charter. Upon proper certification of the eligibility of the 44 petitioners by the Grand Recorder, the Supreme Council may grant a charter to them.

45 Section B - Membership

- 46
47
48
49 1. To be eligible to vote or hold office in a Professional Chapter, a member must be an 50 active Professional member in the Fraternity, not a member of another Professional 51 Chapter, and reside in the locality.

2. A Professional Chapter may assess local dues and fees and require their payment for local membership.
3. Any member of the Fraternity may attend meetings or functions of a Professional Chapter.

Section C - Chapter Identification

A Professional Chapter shall be designated by the name of the city or locality in which it exists.

Section D - Jurisdiction and Duties

Each Professional Chapter shall:

1. Adopt rules for its governance.
2. Hold at least three meetings each year.
3. Keep a record of its membership.
4. Aid in the transition of Collegiate members to the Professional Branch.
5. Engage in fraternal activities for the good of the order.
6. Report to the Grand Chapter and the District Counselor when requested.

Section E - Officers

1. The officers of the Professional Chapter shall be:
President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, HEXAGON correspondent, and such other officers as the Chapter may desire.
2. The officers shall be elected annually and be certified to the Grand Recorder.

Section F - Conclave Delegates

Each active Professional Chapter should send a delegate to conclave. The Professional Chapter delegate must be an active voting member of the chapter.

ARTICLE VI - DISTRICT ORGANIZATION

Section A - Districts

The Supreme Council shall designate, by majority vote, geographical districts and assign each subordinate chapter to a district.

Section B - District Counselors

A District Counselor for each district shall be appointed biennially. The District Counselor must be an active professional member. The District Counselor may be removed at the discretion of the Supreme Council.

BYLAWS

BYLAW I - MEMBERSHIP PROCEDURES

Section A - Election to Membership

1. Discrimination based on race, religion, sex, ethnicity, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender expression, or gender identity is prohibited.

2. Election to Collegiate Membership.

The election of Collegiate members shall proceed as follows:

- a. A chapter shall give all of its active members prior notice of meetings at which it will receive or vote on nominations for membership. In the meeting, any active chapter member may nominate for membership any qualified person. The nomination may be made orally or in writing. The nomination must be supported by at least one other active member of the chapter and must have the certification of the Chapter Advisor regarding the candidate's professional qualifications.
- b. A four-fifths majority of the chapter's active members must approve the nomination by secret ballot.
- c. Members unavoidably absent from the meeting at which the vote will be held may submit their ballots to the Recorder prior to the meeting.
- d. A Collegiate Chapter may, with the approval of the Supreme Council, elect and initiate any properly qualified student of a neighboring college or university where a chapter of this Fraternity does not exist, provided such action is in accord with the regulations of both institutions. Subject to Supreme Council approval, members who are students of an institution where a chapter previously existed but is inactive, may, upon petition, be considered members of that chapter rather than the initiating chapter.
- e. In the event that the procedure for election of Collegiate members is in conflict with the rules of the institution with which a Collegiate Chapter is affiliated, the Supreme Council may authorize an exception to the procedure for the particular chapter.
- f. In no case shall Alpha Chi Sigma accept the assignment of members by an agency external to the Fraternity.

3. Election of Professional Candidates to Membership.

- a. For candidates having a bachelor's degree - Anyone with at least a bachelor's degree in chemistry may be nominated by any member of the Fraternity to a Collegiate Chapter as a candidate for Professional membership at any meeting of the chapter. The chapter shall give all of its active members prior notice of meetings when nominations for membership will be received or voted on. The nominations may be made orally or in writing. The nomination must be supported by at least two other Fraternity members who know the candidate personally. A four-fifths majority of the active chapter members present must approve the nomination by secret ballot.
- b. For other candidates - Anyone who meets the membership qualification may be nominated by any member of the Fraternity to a Collegiate Chapter as a candidate for Professional membership at any meeting of the Chapter. The nomination must be made in writing and clearly state the nominee's qualifications for membership. The nomination must be signed by at least three active Fraternity members who

- 1 certify that they know the candidate personally. A four-fifths majority of the 2 active chapter members present must approve the nomination by secret ballot. If
3 the chapter approves the nomination, it shall be submitted to the Supreme
4 Council, where a unanimous vote is required for ratification.
- 5 c. The chapter that approved the candidate's nomination for membership shall 6 initiate the candidate.
- 7
- 8 4. No person's nomination for membership shall be voted on more than twice during any 9 one Grand Chapter fiscal year.
- 10
- 11 5. Membership in Alpha Chi Sigma precludes membership in any other national 12 professional chemistry fraternity.
- 13
- 14 6. A person may be pledged in the first half of the first college year.
- 15
- 16 7. If a pledge changes to a curriculum in which the requirements for initiation cannot be 17 satisfied, that person shall be dropped from the pledge roll.
- 18
- 19 8. The procedure for withdrawal of an invitation to membership shall be:
- 20 a. Any chapter member, at a regular meeting of the chapter, may move the 21 withdrawal of an invitation to membership for reasons involving dishonorable
22 conduct, consistent scholastic failure, lack of interest in the Fraternity, or injury to 23 the Fraternity if the person is initiated.
- 24 b. At least seven days prior to the meeting at which a vote on the motion will be 25 taken, the chapter shall give all of its active members written notice that a motion
26 to withdraw an invitation to membership is pending and the time and place of the 27 meeting.
- 28 c. A one-third vote of the ballots cast by active members shall be necessary for the 29 withdrawal of an invitation to membership.
- 30 d. Members unavoidably absent from the meeting at which the vote will be held may 31 submit their ballots to the Recorder prior to the meeting.
- 32
- 33 9. No person shall be initiated into the Fraternity until having complied with at least one 34 of the following conditions:
- 35 a. Be in at least the second college year in the study of chemistry and be without 36 condition in any current college work.
- 37 b. Have completed, with college credit allowed, four semester courses or six quarter
38 courses in college chemistry and be without condition in any current college 39 work.
- 40 c. Be in the second semester or third quarter of the first college year, and rank in the 41 upper forty percent of the class in all chemistry courses undertaken, and be 42 without condition in any current college work.
- 43
- 44 10. No pledge shall be initiated before paying either the entire required lifetime
45 membership fee or one-half of the installment lifetime membership fee as specified
46 elsewhere in these Bylaws.
- 47

48 Section B - Transfer Between Collegiate and Professional Branches

49

- 50 1. Except as described below, a member becomes a member of the Collegiate Branch 51 upon:

- 1 a. Initiation into a Collegiate Chapter,
- 2 b. Reaffiliation with a Collegiate Chapter, as reported by that chapter to the Grand
- 3 Recorder.
- 4
- 5 2. A. member becomes a member of the Professional Branch upon:
- 6 a. Initiation as a Professional member,
- 7 b. Report of transfer from a Collegiate Chapter by that chapter to the Grand
- 8 Recorder,
- 9 c. Passage of one academic year during which the member's chapter fails to report
- 10 the member as being active in the chapter,
- 11 d. Acceptance by the member of an elected or appointed position in the Fraternity
- 12 that requires that the member be in the Professional Branch.
- 13
- 14 3. A Collegiate member who, after one year of membership, changes curricula to one
- 15 which does not lead to a degree in chemistry, or who wishes to withdraw from the
- 16 Collegiate Branch, may, upon payment of the balance of financial obligations to the
- 17 Fraternity, become a member of the Professional Branch.
- 18
- 19 4. Any member who is unable to pay in full any indebtedness to the Collegiate Chapter
- 20 at the time of transfer to Professional status shall sign a note, payable to the chapter,
- 21 for the unpaid balance with interest as the chapter directs. Failure to sign such a note
- 22 for any unpaid balance at the date of transfer shall be considered prima facie evidence
- 23 of disloyalty to the Fraternity.
- 24
- 25 5. Each Collegiate Chapter shall sponsor an official ceremony for the purpose of
- 26 recognizing a member's transfer into the Professional Branch when that member
- 27 leaves the Collegiate Branch of the Fraternity.
- 28
- 29 6. Disputes or conflicts regarding membership in the Collegiate Branch shall first be
- 30 raised with the Chapter Advisor or the District Counselor, who shall report
- 31 unresolved disputes to the Grand Collegiate Alchemist for final resolution.
- 32
- 33 7. Only members of the Professional Branch may perform the Professional Induction
- 34 Ceremony. Collegiate members may not observe or participate other than as
- 35 candidates. The Grand Master of Ceremonies may grant exceptions to this restriction
- 36 on specific occasions.
- 37
- 38 8. The chapter Reporter shall notify the Grand Recorder when a Collegiate member
- 39 becomes a Professional member.
- 40

Section C-- Expulsion - (Collegiate and Professional)

1. Expulsion of a member upon the revocation of a charter: When a charter is suspended or revoked, the Grand Collegiate Alchemist, if the chapter was a Collegiate Chapter, or the Grand Professional Alchemist, if the chapter was a Professional Chapter, shall make a complete investigation to determine the responsibility for the incidents leading to the suspension or revocation of the charter. If the Grand Collegiate Alchemist or the Grand Professional Alchemist determines that any member has committed any act which warrants expulsion, the Grand Collegiate Alchemist or Grand Professional Alchemist shall present a complete record of the case, with recommendations, to the Supreme Council. The member in question may be expelled by a unanimous vote of the Supreme Council.
2. Expulsion for failure to meet financial obligations: Any member who fails to meet Lifetime Membership fee obligations in full within the time period required at initiation shall be notified of the remaining obligation by the Grand Recorder and informed that failure to pay shall constitute grounds for expulsion from the Fraternity. If the member then fails to meet the outstanding obligation, the Grand Recorder shall propose expulsion in a written report to the Supreme Council, a copy of which shall be mailed to the member. A unanimous vote of the Supreme Council shall be necessary for expulsion of the member.
3. General expulsion procedures for Collegiate members
 - a. A Collegiate member may submit written, signed charges against a member to the Master Alchemist, who shall read them at the next regular meeting of the chapter.
 - b. The Master Alchemist shall appoint a member of the chapter to conduct the prosecution. The member bringing the charges shall act as prosecuting witness.
 - c. The accused member may select two members of the chapter to conduct the defense.
 - d. The Recorder shall notify in writing every active member of the chapter of the time of the trial.
 - e. The accused member shall be tried not sooner than at the next regular chapter meeting following that at which the charges were read. The Master Alchemist shall preside at the trial, unless accused, in which case the Vice Master Alchemist shall preside.
 - f. After the evidence has been heard, the active members of the chapter shall vote by secret ballot for acquittal or conviction. A three-fourths vote of all active members of the chapter for conviction shall result in a recommendation for expulsion.
 - g. If the vote recommends expulsion, the Reporter shall send copies of the proceedings to the Grand Collegiate Alchemist and the District Counselor. The Grand Collegiate Alchemist shall summarize the proceedings and make a personal recommendation to the Supreme Council. The Supreme Council may, by a unanimous vote, expel the member.

4. General expulsion procedures for Professional members
 - a. Two members of the Fraternity may submit written, signed charges, against a member to the Grand Professional Alchemist. If the charges are brought by or against the Grand Professional Alchemist, they shall be submitted to the Grand Master Alchemist.
 - b. The Grand Professional Alchemist shall send a copy of the charges to the member accused and request the member to present a defense in writing.
 - c. The accused may submit signed statements from other members in defense against the charges.
 - d. The Grand Professional Alchemist shall study the evidence and present a report and recommendation to the Supreme Council.
 - e. The Supreme Council shall vote whether to expel the accused member. A unanimous vote of the Supreme Council shall be necessary for expulsion of the member.
5. No member shall be tried twice on the same charge.
6. The name of each expelled member with a statement of the cause for expulsion shall be published in the Proceedings of the Grand Chapter.

BYLAW II - SUBORDINATE CHAPTER RELATIONS WITH THE GRAND CHAPTER

Section A - Procedures for Chartering Collegiate Chapters

1. The following procedure shall be followed in the petitioning, approval, and installation of new Collegiate Chapters or for reactivation of chapters that have had their charter revoked:
 - a. Inquiries from organizations concerning affiliation with the Fraternity shall be referred to the Grand Master Alchemist, who shall direct correspondence with the organization.
 - b. When an organization desires to become a Collegiate Chapter, and the Grand Master Alchemist approves, the organization shall submit a written request for permission to petition.
 - c. When an organization requests permission to petition, the Grand Master Alchemist, or a designated representative, shall visit the organization.
 - d. After the visit, the Grand Master Alchemist shall prepare a recommendation on the request for permission to petition.
 - e. The request for permission to petition and the Grand Master Alchemist's recommendation shall be submitted to the Supreme Council, which shall decide by majority vote whether to permit a formal petition by the organization.
 - f. If the Supreme Council grants the organization permission to petition, the organization shall submit a petition to the Grand Recorder. The petition shall be directed to "The Chapters of Alpha Chi Sigma." The form of the petition and its contents shall be established through consultation between the petitioning organization and a designated representative of the Supreme Council.
 - g. Upon receiving the petition, the Grand Recorder shall notify the Grand Master Alchemist. The Grand Master Alchemist shall obtain the recommendation of the Supreme Council and forward it to the Grand Recorder in writing. The Grand Recorder shall submit the petition and the recommendation of the Supreme Council to the active subordinate chapters.

- h. If at least three-fourths of the chapters vote favorably, the petition shall be granted. Any chapter not voting within 45 days shall be deemed to have voted in favor of the petition.
 - i. If the petition is granted, the Supreme Council shall issue a charter and install the organization as a new Collegiate Chapter.
 - j. Members of the petitioning organization other than the petitioners themselves shall have no rights conferred by the charter grant, but shall be subject to election to membership.
2. In order to help form the nucleus of a new chapter, any member who is initiated into a chapter at an institution other than that which the member attends shall have the option of becoming a charter member of the new chapter, if and when a charter is granted. This choice must be made at the time of installation.

Section B - Procedures for Chartering Professional Chapters

1. Five or more Professional members residing in the same locality and holding meetings may notify the Grand Recorder of their activities. Upon receipt of notice, the Grand Recorder shall be authorized to designate such a local organization as a "Professional Group" and to list the group in the Fraternity directory. The Grand Professional Alchemist may approve District Counselor visitation.
2. The following procedure shall be followed in the petitioning, approval, and installation of new Professional Chapters or for reactivation of chapters that have had their charter revoked:
 - a. In order to be eligible to petition to become a Professional Chapter, an organization must have been designated as a Professional Group for at least six (6) consecutive months and consist of at least eight(8) active members.
 - b. If a Professional Group desires to become a Professional Chapter, the organization shall submit a written request for permission to petition.
 - c. When a Professional Group requests permission to petition, the Grand Master Alchemist, or a designated representative, shall visit the organization.
 - d. After the visit, the Grand Master Alchemist, or the designated representative, shall prepare a recommendation on the request to petition.
 - e. The request for permission to petition and the Grand Master Alchemist's recommendation shall be submitted to the Supreme Council, which shall decide by majority vote whether to permit a formal petition by the organization.
 - f. The request to petition and the Grand Master Alchemist's recommendation shall be submitted to the Supreme Council, which shall decide by majority vote whether to grant the request.
 - g. If the Supreme Council grants the organization permission to petition, the organization shall submit a petition to the Grand Recorder. The petition shall be directed to "The Supreme Council of Alpha Chi Sigma." The form of the petition and its contents shall be established through consultation between the petitioning organization and a designated representative of the Supreme Council.
 - h. If the Supreme Council approves the petition by majority vote, it shall issue a charter and install the organization as a new Professional Chapter.

Section C - Probation

1. Failure of a Subordinate Chapter to comply with Fraternity law shall be reported promptly to the District Counselor, who shall investigate and assist the chapter to correct its procedure.
2. If the Supreme Council finds just cause to place a Subordinate Chapter on probation or finds that the chapter has failed to comply with Fraternity law, it shall notify the chapter's District Counselor. The District Counselor shall then place the Subordinate Chapter on probation.
3. When a chapter is placed on probation, its charter shall be confiscated and forwarded by the District Counselor to the Grand Recorder, who shall retain possession during the period of probation.
4. A chapter on probation shall tender reports at least monthly to the District Counselor.
5. Probation will continue until the charter is reinstated or suspended by a majority vote of the Supreme Council or revoked by a unanimous vote of the Supreme Council.

Section D - Suspension

1. A chapter failing to comply with Fraternity law may have its charter suspended by majority vote of the Supreme Council.
2. A subordinate chapter that has had its charter suspended shall cease to operate as or be recognized as an active chapter of the Fraternity.
3. A chapter's suspension shall be for a stated period of time within the discretion of the Supreme Council.
4. At the end of the stated time period, the suspension will be lifted and one of the following actions shall be taken:
 - a. The chapter will be returned to full active status by a majority vote of the Supreme Council.
 - b. The chapter will be placed on probation by a majority vote of the Supreme Council.
 - c. The chapter's charter will be revoked by a unanimous vote of the Supreme Council.

Section E - Inactive Chapters

1. The Supreme Council shall declare a Subordinate Chapter inactive if no activity has been reported for three consecutive years.
2. A chapter whose charter has been suspended or revoked shall be considered to be de facto inactive.
3. When a chapter is declared inactive, all property of the chapter, except that provided for by incorporation, shall pass to the Grand Chapter, in trust. The Supreme Council shall liquidate such assets as are required to pay claims against the chapter so far as

1 the assets will permit. If the chapter is not reactivated within five years, the Grand
2 Chapter may dispose of any residue in any manner it sees fit.

- 3
- 4 4. When a chapter becomes inactive, the Grand Chapter shall receive and retain the 5 charter, records, and regalia of the chapter.
- 6
- 7 5. The Grand Chapter shall be the sole representative and authorized agent of the 8 inactive chapter in all matters.
- 9

10 Section F - Gifts, Bequests and Donations

11

- 12 1. Whenever gifts, bequests, donations or the like of money or tangible or intangible
13 property in excess of $10,000 are made to an active Subordinate Chapter, the money
14 or property shall be transmitted to the Grand Chapter.
- 15
- 16 2. Whenever gifts, bequests, donations, or the like of money or tangible or intangible
17 property in any amount are made to an inactive subordinate chapter, the money or 18 property shall be transmitted to the Grand Chapter.
- 19
- 20 3. The Grand Chapter shall hold such money or property and shall be solely responsible 21 for the investment of such money or property and the income therefrom; for holding,
22 selling, and investing the proceeds from the sale of such property; and for the 23 disbursement of such assets to carry out the intentions of the donor and to carry out
24 the provisions of such gift, bequest, or donation.
- 25
- 26 4. The Grand Chapter may, at its sole discretion, set up separate corporations, use
27 existing corporations, or establish other mechanisms for administering such gifts,
28 bequests, or donations.
- 29
- 30 5. If a corporation is used to administer such gifts, bequests or donations made to an 31 active Subordinate Chapter, the membership of any board of the corporation shall 32 include at least one member of the Subordinate Chapter, if state law allows.
- 33
- 34 6. In the case of gifts, bequests or donations to a Collegiate Chapter, this section shall be 35 subject to requirements of the institution at which that Collegiate Chapter is located.
- 36

37 BYLAW III - THE GRAND CHAPTER

38

39 Section A - Membership

40

- 41 1. Conclave Delegates
- 42 a. When electing a delegate for conclave, each Subordinate Chapter shall elect a 43 delegate, a first alternate, and a second alternate.
- 44 b. If a chapter delegate cannot attend conclave, the first alternate shall become the 45 delegate. If both the delegate and first alternate cannot attend conclave, the 46 second alternate shall become the delegate.
- 47 c. If a Collegiate Chapter fails to have a delegate at conclave, it may be punished by 48 chapter probation and a fine of not more than $250, at the discretion of the 49 Supreme Council.
- 50 d. A Collegiate Chapter delegate shall not be accredited unless the delegate expects 51 to return to the chapter as an active member for the remainder of the current

1 calendar year or unless approved by the District Counselor and the Grand
2 Collegiate Alchemist.

- 3 e. A delegate shall not be accredited if the chapter is delinquent in the payment of 4 any fees due the Grand Chapter. To obtain accreditation, the delegate may pay
5 the indebtedness or sign a statement that the chapter will meet the indebtedness
6 within ninety days of the closing date of the conclave. If the delegate signs the 7 statement and the chapter fails to meet the conditions of the statement, the chapter
8 shall be placed on probation until the indebtedness is paid or until the 9 indebtedness is excused by unanimous vote of the Supreme Council.

10
11 2. Professional Representatives

- 12 a. The number of Professional Representatives shall be no greater than one-fifth of 13 the number of active collegiate chapters, rounded to the next higher number. The 14 number of Professional Representatives shall be determined by the Grand Chapter
15 at each Conclave.
16 b. Each Professional Representative will hold office for a term of two years, with 17 approximately one-half of the terms beginning in any year.
18 c. Professional Representatives are eligible for reelection.
19 d. Candidates for Professional Representative shall be solicited at least six months
20 prior to an election.
21 e. The vitae of nominees, together with statements of their views, shall be 22 distributed with the ballots.
23 f. Each year, Professional Representatives will be elected by secret ballot of the 24 active professional members of the Fraternity. This election shall be held at the 25 time of the solicitation of professional contributions. Only ballots returned by 26 November 30 will be counted. In the event of a tie between two or more
27 candidates for the last position to be filled in an annual election, the elected
28 candidate shall be determined by random drawing.
29 g. If an elected Professional Representative is unable to serve for any reason
30 including failure to remain an active professional member, the Grand Master
31 Alchemist shall appoint the unelected nominee who received the highest number
32 of votes in the preceding election to serve.
33 h. The Professional Representatives shall elect a chair before the end of January on a
34 yearly basis.

35
36 3. District Counselors

- 37
38 a. The Supreme Council shall solicit recommendations for District Counselor from 39 the Master Alchemist or President of each chapter. The Master Alchemists and 40 Presidents shall submit their recommendations to the Grand Collegiate Alchemist
41 by May 1st of a conclave year. The Supreme Council shall consider these 42 recommendations before appointment of District Counselors.
43 b. The District Counselors shall elect a chair within two months of the end of each
44 conclave. The duties of this individual shall include instructing recently
45 appointed District Counselors in the duties of their office.
46
47
48

Section B - Duties of Grand Chapter Members

- 1
- 2 1. Each member of the Grand Chapter should send to the Grand Recorder, at least three
- 3 months prior to the conclave, brief statements of proposals they intend to recommend
- 4 for conclave action. The Grand Recorder shall summarize and send this information
- 5 to all members of the Grand Chapter for consideration.
- 6
- 7 2. Each chapter delegate shall, at the first business meeting of the chapter following the
- 8 conclave, present a report on all important business transacted at the conclave.
- 9

10 Section C - Voting

- 11
- 12 1. Each voting member of the Grand Chapter shall have one vote on every question that
- 13 comes before the Grand Chapter. No individual or subordinate chapter shall have
- 14 more than one vote, regardless of the number of positions held.
- 15
- 16 2. The Grand Chapter shall be considered in continuous session.
- 17
- 18 3. When the Grand Chapter is assembled in conclave, voting shall take place according
- 19 to the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised or such other rules
- 20 adopted by the Grand Chapter for the conclave.
- 21
- 22 4. When the Grand Chapter is not assembled in Conclave, legislation shall be conducted
- 23 as follows:
- 24 a. The legislation and an explanation shall be submitted by its maker and seconder
- 25 to the Grand Recorder.
- 26 b. The Grand Recorder shall distribute the legislation and written explanation to the
- 27 members of the Grand Chapter.
- 28 c. Members of the Grand Chapter may submit written comments on the legislation
- 29 to the Grand Recorder within 45 days from the date of distribution.
- 30 d. If after the comment period, significant disagreement is apparent, the Supreme
- 31 Council may defer consideration of the legislation to the next Conclave.
- 32 e. If the legislation is not deferred, the Grand Recorder shall distribute a ballot and a
- 33 copy of each of the comments to each member of the Grand Chapter.
- 34 f. The members of the Grand Chapter shall complete their ballots and return them to
- 35 the Grand Recorder.
- 36 g. Only ballots returned to the Grand Recorder within 45 days of the date the Grand
- 37 Recorder distributed the ballots shall be counted.
- 38 h. A quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the Grand Chapter, as
- 39 counted by ballots returned to the Grand Recorder within 45 days from the date of
- 40 distribution, except for the purpose of amending the Constitution, in which case a
- 41 quorum shall consist of 80% of the members of the Grand Chapter.
- 42 i. Should a quorum of members of the Grand Chapter not be obtained, the
- 43 legislation shall be included in the old business agenda of the next Conclave.
- 44 j. The Grand Recorder shall publish the legislation and the result of the vote and the
- 45 Grand Editor shall publish it in official journal.
- 46 k. Amendments to the Constitution or Bylaws approved by the Grand Chapter shall
- 47 be read, along with an explanation of the amendment by its originator or his
- 48 representative, at the conclave following their adoption.
- 49

50 Section D - Selection of Officers

- 1 1. The Grand Chapter Officers, except the Grand Recorder and Assistant Grand
2 Recorder, shall be elected at regular conclaves of the Grand Chapter by a majority
3 vote. They shall be installed at the close of the conclave at which they are elected in 4 accordance with the ritual. They shall hold office until the installation of their
5 successors. Only active professional members may serve on the Supreme Council.
6
- 7 2. The Grand Recorder shall be appointed by the Supreme Council within ten days of 8 the close of conclave, shall be installed as directed by the Supreme Council and shall 9 hold office until the installation of a successor.
10
- 11 3. An Assistant Grand Recorder may be appointed by the Supreme Council at such time
12 as deemed desirable and necessary by them. If so appointed, the Assistant Grand
13 Recorder shall hold office until the installation of a successor or until discontinuance
14 of the office by a majority vote of the Supreme Council.
15

Section E - Vacancies in Offices

1. The Grand Master Alchemist shall fill, by appointment, with the approval of the Supreme Council, any vacancies that may occur in the other Grand Chapter offices.
2. When a vacancy occurs in the office of the Grand Master Alchemist, the other Supreme Council members shall succeed in the order of seniority, which shall be measured by length of service on the Supreme Council.
3. Upon the succession of any officer to the office of Grand Master Alchemist, the office thus made vacant shall be filled by the new Grand Master Alchemist by appointment.
4. In the event that all of the Supreme Council members become unable to serve, the office of the Grand Master Alchemist shall be filled by the most immediately available past-Grand Master Alchemist until an election and installation can be held.

Section F - Removal of Officers

Any Grand Chapter Officer may be impeached by any subordinate chapter for disloyalty to the Fraternity or dilatory discharge of duties. The impeaching chapter shall take a vote of the active subordinate chapters regarding removal of the officer. The vote shall be counted and certified by the District Counselor at a meeting of the impeaching chapter and the result forwarded to the individual members of the Supreme Council. The Supreme Council shall recognize the result of the vote and shall declare the officer removed from office if three-fourths of the chapters vote for removal.

Section G - Committees

1. Nominating - The Grand Chapter shall have a Nominating Committee to solicit possible candidates for Grand Chapter offices and Professional Representatives, to review the qualifications of each possible candidate, and, based upon the review, nominate candidates for each Grand Chapter office and Professional Representative. The committee shall consist of five Grand Chapter members. At least two of these shall be Professional members at the time of their appointment, and at least two of these shall be Collegiate members. Active professional members who cease to be qualified as Grand Chapter members during the biennium may continue to serve until the end of the biennium at the discretion of the Supreme Council. At the discretion of the Grand Master Alchemist, the previous Grand Master Alchemist may serve on the committee, without voting privileges. The committee may nominate more than one person for any office.
2. Professional Representative - The Grand Chapter shall have a Professional Representative Committee to coordinate and facilitate the activities of the Professional Representatives and help them complete their duties. The committee shall consist of all Professional Representatives and the Grand Professional Alchemist, who shall appoint a chair for the committee from among its members.
3. Other Grand Chapter committees may be created by the Supreme Council.

- 1 4. Each permanent Grand Chapter committee shall include at least one Professional
2 Representative.
3

4 Section H - Conclaves
5

- 6 1. The Grand Master Alchemist shall give notice in writing of the time and place of a
7 conclave to all Grand Chapter members at least three months prior to the conclave.
8 For Grand Chapter members representing subordinate chapters, notice to the 9 subordinate chapter's Master Alchemist or President shall constitute notice to the 10 representative.
11
- 12 2. No member of the Grand Chapter shall be absent from any business session of the 13 Conclave unless excused by the Grand Master Alchemist. Unexcused absentees shall 14 not receive expense allowances from the Fraternity.
15
- 16 3. A majority of the members of the Grand Chapter shall constitute a quorum for the 17 transaction of business, except for the purpose of amending the Constitution, in which
18 case a quorum shall consist of 80% of the Grand Chapter members.
19
- 20 4. Proxies are prohibited.
21
- 22 5. The Grand Recorder shall advise the conclave of the Supreme Council's 23 recommendations on legislation.
24
- 25 6. The Grand Chapter Nominating Committee shall recommend nominees for Grand 26 Chapter offices at least six months prior to Conclave. The vita of the nominees,
27 together with statements of their views, shall be published prior to May of each
28 Conclave year. Other candidates may be nominated by members of the Grand
29 Chapter either prior to Conclave or from the Conclave floor.
30
- 31 7. The order of business at the conclave shall be at the discretion of the Grand Master
32 Alchemist but shall include the following:
33 a. Roll Call
34 b. Reports of officers
35 c. Reports of regular committees
36 d. Reports of special committees
37 e. Unfinished business
38 f. New business
39 g. Election of officers
40 h. Installation of officers
41 i. Adjournment
42
- 43 8. Conferences of all Professional delegates to consider legislation affecting 44 Professional members may be held in connection with the conclaves at the call of the 45 Grand Professional Alchemist or of three-fourths of the Professional delegates.
46
- 47 9. Expenses of the Grand Chapter Officers, the District Counselors, Grand Chapter
48 Committee Chairs, Collegiate and Professional Chapter delegates (or elected 49 alternates), Professional Representatives, and invited guests shall be paid from Grand
50 Chapter funds to the extent authorized by the Supreme Council.
51

- 1 10. The Supreme Council shall manage conclaves.
- 2
- 3 11. All Collegiate delegates at conclave must use the housing accommodations approved
- 4 by the Supreme Council. Any exceptions must be approved by the Supreme Council.
- 5 Professional delegates not using the housing accommodations arranged by the
- 6 Supreme Council may be reimbursed for housing only at the same rate as the
- 7 delegates who participate. Delegates not using the meal plan arranged by the
- 8 Supreme Council may not be reimbursed for meals at the conclave, unless the
- 9 Supreme Council approves another plan for an individual delegate for health or other
- 10 good reason.
- 11
- 12 12. The following Grand Chapter Conclave Committees shall be appointed by the Grand
- 13 Master Alchemist at least two months prior to the conclave:
- 14 a. Legislative Preparation - to assist the delegates in presenting all conclave motions
- 15 in proper written form for presentation to the Grand Chapter.
- 16 b. Financial Legislation - to prepare or review all legislation regarding fees, dues
- 17 and other Fraternity financial issues and to advise the Grand Chapter on the
- 18 impact of that legislation on the finances of the Fraternity
- 19 c. Constitution and Bylaws - to prepare or review all legislation amending the
- 20 Constitution and Bylaws and to ensure that such legislation is in proper form for
- 21 presentation to the Grand Chapter.
- 22 d. Resolutions - to prepare or review Resolutions of greeting and appreciation for
- 23 presentation to the Grand Chapter.
- 24

25 Section I – Reports and Proceedings

26

27

28

- 29 1. Each Grand Chapter Officer shall submit a report of activities to the Grand Recorder
- 30 at the close of each fiscal year.
- 31
- 32 2. The Grand Recorder shall submit the Grand Chapter Officer reports, the record of
- 33 Supreme Council proceedings, activities and meetings, and the report of Grand
- 34 Chapter proceedings to all members of the Grand Chapter at the close of each fiscal
- 35 year.
- 36

1 BYLAW IV - SUPREME COUNCIL

2
3 Section A - Quorum

4
5 Three members of the Supreme Council shall constitute a quorum.

6
7 Section B - Voting

- 8
9 1. Unless otherwise stated, approval by the Supreme Council shall be considered to 10 mean approval by a majority of the members of the Supreme Council.
11
12 2. Proxies are prohibited.

13
14 BYLAW V - COLLEGIATE CHAPTERS

15
16 Section A - Election of Officers

- 17
18 1. The Reporter, Treasurer, and Alumni Secretary shall be elected for a term of one
19 year. All other officers shall be elected for a term of no longer than one year.
20
21 2. Officers may be reelected.
22
23 3. All officers shall serve until the installation of their successors.
24
25 4. Vacancies in the Collegiate Chapter offices shall be filled as follows:
26 a. The Vice Master Alchemist shall succeed the Master Alchemist, and a new Vice 27 Master Alchemist will be elected.
28 b. The Recorder shall succeed the Reporter, and a new Recorder will be elected.
29 c. Where assistant chapter officers are provided by chapter bylaws, the assistant
30 shall succeed to the higher office, and a new assistant will be elected.
31 d. Vacancies not otherwise provided for shall be filled by chapter election.
32 e. The Master Alchemist may appoint temporary officers to fill vacancies until the 33 next meeting of the chapter, when an election shall be held.
34
35 5. The officers, with the exception of the Alumni Secretary, should be matriculated
36 students at an institution with which the chapter is associated. The Alumni Secretary,
37 if a Collegiate member, should be an active member of the chapter.
38

39 Section B - Committees

40
41 Each Collegiate Chapter shall have the following standing committees:

- 42
43 1. Auditing - to consist of the Vice Master Alchemist and two other members of the 44 chapter appointed by the Master Alchemist. It shall audit the books of the Treasurer
45 at least once annually and immediately following the Treasurer's installation.
46
47 2. Membership - to consist of the Vice Master Alchemist and two collegiate members of 48 the chapter appointed by the Master Alchemist. It shall investigate the qualifications
49 of persons proposed for membership and shall report to the chapter those eligible for 50 membership.
51

- 1
2
3 3. Budget - to consist of the Treasurer, the Master Alchemist, and one or more members
4 elected by the chapter. It shall create a budget of chapter finances and submit it to the 5 chapter for approval, within the first month of the fall term of the school year.
6
7
8

9 Section C - Miscellaneous Chapter Procedures
10

- 11 1. A Manual of Procedure shall be provided by the Supreme Council for the guidance of 12 all officers and chapters in routine Fraternity matters. It shall include instructions to 13 officers, methods of finance and accounting, methods of reporting, the Fraternity laws
14 with indices, and ceremonial instructions not included in the ritual.
15
16
17 2. The Supreme Council may assist any chapter in collecting unpaid obligations of its 18 members.
19
20 3. There shall be no penalty for absence from a regular chapter meeting if the member is 21 not in residence in the chapter locality or if the member is excused by a two-thirds 22 vote of the members present at the next regular chapter meeting.
23
24 4. A Collegiate Chapter may provide an organization for its pledges, with the consent of 25 the District Counselor and the Supreme Council and subject to the regulations of the 26 institution. The chapter shall be responsible for the activities of such an organization.
27
28 5. A majority of the active collegiate members residing within the chapter locality, less 29 those excused, shall constitute a quorum. Proxies toward a quorum are prohibited.
30
31 6. The suggested order of business at Collegiate Chapter meetings shall be as follows:
32 a. Call to order
33 b. Secret ritual opening
34 c. Roll Call
35 d. Reading of minutes
36 e. Reports of officers
37 f. Reading of correspondence
38 g. Reports of regular committees
39 h. Reports of special committees
40 i. Unfinished business
41 j. New business
42 k. Proposals for membership
43 l. Election to membership
44 m. Appointment of committees
45 n. Election of officers
46 o. Installation of officers
47 p. Secret ritual closing
48
49 7. A member who moves to another institution where a chapter of the Fraternity exists
50 may become a member of this chapter if desired. Before affiliating that member, the 51 new chapter shall ascertain his status of membership from the former chapter and

1 from the Grand Recorder. Any disputes shall be referred to the Grand Collegiate
2 Alchemist for resolution. A member can be an active member of only one collegiate
3 chapter at a time.
4

- 5 8. A Collegiate Chapter shall not incorporate, nor shall it own any real property for the 6 purpose of providing housing for its members or producing rental income. Housing
7 Corporations may not be formed on behalf of subordinate chapters without the 8 approval of the Supreme Council. Such Housing Corporations are separate and 9 distinct from the Alpha Chi Sigma Fraternity. Members of Alpha Chi Sigma residing 10 in chapter houses should not be voting officers or voting members of the Board of 11 Directors of the housing corporation.
12

13 BYLAW VI - LEADERSHIP CONFERENCES

14 Section A - Regional Leadership Conferences

- 15
16
17
18 1. The Supreme Council may annually authorize a series of Regional Leadership
19 Conferences to be attended by any member of the Fraternity.
20
21 2. The Grand Recorder shall be responsible for arrangements for housing, meals,
22 meeting facilities, and instructional or discussion materials to be provided.
23
24 3. The program for a Conference in a specific region shall be arranged by the Grand
25 Recorder and the District Counselors for all chapters in the region.
26
27 4. The extent to which the Grand Chapter will meet expenses of the conferees shall be
28 determined by the Supreme Council at least three months prior to any Conference.
29
30 5. The locations of the Regional Conferences shall be determined by the Supreme 31 Council, upon advice of the District Counselors and the Grand Recorder.

- ## BYLAW VII - FRATERNITY FINANCE

The fiscal year of the Grand Chapter shall coincide with the calendar year.

1. A pledge fee for each candidate shall be collected by the Collegiate Chapter and forwarded to the Grand Recorder immediately following the Pledge Ceremony. For each biennium the pledge fee shall be established by the Supreme Council with the concurrence of the Grand Chapter. The pledge fee is non-refundable.
2.
 - a. For each candidate initiated into the Fraternity by an established Collegiate Chapter of the Fraternity, a lifetime membership fee shall be paid to the Grand Chapter. The fee shall be collected by the Treasurer of the chapter.
 - b. For each biennium the lifetime membership fee shall be established by the Supreme Council with the concurrence of the Grand Chapter.
 - c. Payment of the lifetime membership fee on an installment basis shall be permitted. The installment lifetime membership fee shall be the lifetime membership fee increased by ten percent and rounded to the nearest whole dollar amount. One-half of the installment lifetime membership fee rounded up to the nearest whole dollar shall be paid to the Treasurer of the chapter prior to initiation. The remainder of the installment lifetime membership fee shall be paid within six months of the initiation date or upon the candidate's graduation, whichever comes first.
 - d. The Treasurer shall forward all collected fees to the Grand Recorder prior to the initiation date. The Treasurer shall forward all second payments collected to the Grand Recorder prior to their due date.
3. The Supreme Council may set reduced pledge and lifetime membership fees and specify extended payment schedules for candidates who will become Collegiate members of a new or reactivated collegiate chapter within three years of the establishment or reactivation of that chapter.

4. A Collegiate chapter may submit a written petition to the Supreme Council for a waiver of all or part of pledge and lifetime membership fees on behalf of qualified faculty members at the Collegiate Chapter's institution.

Section C - Professional Contributions

1. The suggested amount of annual voluntary Grand Chapter Contributions for Professional members shall be fixed by the Supreme Council and shall be solicited by the Grand Professional Alchemist.
2. Any member who contributes a sum of money, in an amount chosen by the Supreme Council, to the Alpha Chi Sigma Reserve Fund or House Fund shall be designated as a permanent active Professional member provided the payment of Lifetime membership fees has been completed. This contribution may be made in a lump sum or in installments of not less than 10% of the total in addition to annual voluntary Professional Contributions.

Section D - Warrant Validation

1. Any Grand Chapter Officer may sign warrants for Fraternity funds.
2. The Supreme Council shall, by proposition, establish limits above which warrants shall require the signature of two or more authorized persons. These limits shall not be less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000.
3. The Supreme Council may bond, in an amount it deems appropriate, any of the persons authorized to sign warrants, or any employee handling Fraternity accounts or funds. The bond shall be made payable to the Fraternity, in case of default. The cost of carrying the bond shall be borne by the Fraternity.

Section E - Special Assessments and Fees

Assessments and fees as determined and approved by the Supreme Council for special purposes not otherwise covered in the Constitution and Bylaws shall not become binding upon individual chapters until approved by a majority vote of the Grand Chapter.

Section F - Reimbursements

Application for reimbursement for expenses incurred in Fraternity service shall be presented to the appropriate Grand Chapter Officer no later than six months following such expenditures or prior to January 15 of the year following such expenditures, whichever is earlier. When leaving office, officers shall submit a full accounting for reimbursement at the time of transferring the offices to their successors.

Section G – Expense Allotments

1 The Supreme Council may establish annual allotments for Grand Chapter Officers for
2 miscellaneous expenses related to their offices. The total annual allotments shall not
3 exceed 0.5% of the Grand Chapter budget for the previous year.
4

5 6 Section H - Ritual and Regalia 7

- 8 1. A complete set of regalia shall be furnished free of charge to a new chapter on the 9 date of installation.
- 10 2. Regalia articles not subject to normal depreciation, as determined by the District
11 Counselor, shall be replaced at chapter expense.
- 12 3. A fine not to exceed $50 shall be levied against any chapter or member of the 13 Fraternity responsible for the loss of a copy of the ritual. The fine for the loss of any 14 section of the ritual shall be $5.
- 15 4. A Collegiate Chapter, with the permission of the Grand Master of Ceremonies, may 16 purchase for the Grand Chapter up to a complete second set of regalia for exclusive
17 use by that Collegiate Chapter. All copies of the ritual and all regalia shall remain the 18 property of the Grand Chapter.
19
20
21

22 23 Section I – Debt Liability 24

25 Neither the Grand Chapter nor any of its members shall be liable for debts incurred by 26 subordinate chapters or individual members of the Fraternity.
27
28
29

30 BYLAW VIII - OFFICIAL JOURNAL 31

32 Section A - Editors 33

34 There may be one or more Associate Editors or Assistant Editors of the official journal
35 appointed by the Grand Editor with the approval of the Supreme Council.
36

37 Section B - Business Manager 38

39 The Grand Recorder shall be business manager of the official journal and shall receive 40 and disburse all monies of the journal.
41

42 Section C - Distribution 43

44 The official journal shall be distributed regularly to all members of known address.
45

46 Section D - Subscription Price 47

48 The subscription price for non-members shall be determined by the Grand Editor.
49

50 Section E - Volumes 51

1 All issues of the official journal published during any one Fraternity fiscal year shall
2 constitute one volume.

4 BYLAW IX - FRATERNITY JEWELRY

6 Section A - Official Jewelry

8 The flat-bordered plain badge shall be the standard official badge of the Fraternity. All
9 other badges, pins, rings, or charms of the same basic design as the flat-bordered plain
10 badge and buttons or lapel pins in the hexagon shape or the badge with the alchemical
11 symbol for lead on the face shall comprise the official jewelry of the Fraternity.

13 Section B - Orders

15 Orders for all official jewelry must be placed through the Grand Recorder.

17 Section C - Wearing

19 Official jewelry of the Fraternity may be worn by a member, a member's betrothed, or a
20 member of the Fraternity member's immediate family.

22 Section D - Order of Altotus

24 The Order of Altotus jewelry shall be reserved exclusively for members of the Order.
25 Upon entry to the Order, the member will be presented with one item of jewelry.

27 Section E - Recognition Pins

29 The gold Greek letter recognition button shall be reserved for Professional members, and 30 the silver Greek letter recognition button shall be reserved for Collegiate members.

32 Section F - Redemption

34 The Grand Recorder shall be empowered to redeem any official badges found in the 35 hands of unqualified persons, for a value determined from manufacturer's prices.

The Fraternity shall indemnify any person (or the heirs or personal representatives of such person) who has served or is serving as a member of the Supreme Council, the Grand Recorder, Assistant Grand Recorder, Grand Editor, or any other officer or duly elected or appointed official or employee of the Fraternity designated by the Supreme Council, in the fulfillment of that person's duties against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the individual in connection with the defense of any claim, action, suit, or proceeding resulting therefrom, to the extent permitted by law, upon determination by the Supreme Council that the indemnification is proper in each specific case. The right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of other rights to which the individual may be entitled as a matter of law.

Section B - Parliamentary Authority

In matters of parliamentary procedure not otherwise covered by this Constitution and Bylaws, the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall be considered authoritative.

Section C - Editing of Constitution or Bylaws

The Supreme Council shall be empowered to change the wording of adopted Grand Chapter legislation, without changing the meaning, if necessary to bring it into conformity with the accepted standards of English and consistent terminology.
