November 4, 2002

I. Meeting began at 4:05 pm

II. Attendance was taken

III. Minutes were read and accepted

IV. Officer Reports

A. President Williams

1. Political Involvement Committee - the rally went really well; there was free pizzas, info about the higher education bond referendum, and info about voting rights; ORA band, the same band that will be playing at the homecoming dance, played on the Great Lawn, at the rally

2. Polls - people signed up to do polls, not everyone got what they signed up for, tried to fit you in, only working polls from 7am-9am and 4pm-7pm, if you can work polls at any of these locations, please show up, if you are signed up please come get info and wear CNU stuff, and get signs; pass around sign up sheet

3. Writing Center - proposal that passed to give Writing Center $4000; contacted Cindy Perry who is in charge of University budget, sent her an e-mail asking about funding Writing Center, we'll set up an account and put money in there for them to withdraw

4. RHA - this week met with the Residence Hall Association President and advisors, they gave an update about the org, today Cristine Warner is going to take a second to talk about RHA and this year

-Cristina Warner- few changes with RHA, in the past been a dormant organization, we existed, but students didn't know about us, this year we started hall councils in each hall, meetings posted in common areas, anyone is welcome to give suggestions and concerns, programming in own residence halls; RHA is umbrella over hall councils, come to RHA meetings for big issues and concerns; been noticing residence hall concerns have been coming to SGA; first open wide campus meeting is tomorrow at 7pm in JRH multipurpose room, you need a CNU Student ID to enter; want to thank e-board for giving chance to talk at Senate meeting

-President Williams - forgot to mention, please stand up and restate name and club or org. you are affiliated with, when you speak

B. VPSS Davis

1. Blurt Out Results - harbor lights: opened up early only on game days (sat) after football games are all over, normal hours will resume, more concerns about this come see VPSS Davis; CNU apts: permanent light fixture installed last week in parking lot; Barclay apts: no back entrance will be added, if you have reason for a back entrance, different reason, please let me know; construction in Ferguson: doing first phase of Fine & Performing Arts center, nothing you can really do about it, please bear with it, if it becomes unbearable we'll rotate working hours; sewage at Ferguson: thanks for this concern, it is being fixed; Ferguson heating: been repaired as well, thanks for the concern; fill in parking potholes at Chanellos: filled these in and then it rained, keep updating and let us know where the new potholes are located; library sales: more than happy to accommodate sales, but don't have space now, can do it in new library, please take concern to the Senate library rep; soliciting on campus: anyone has the right to solicit in Student Center; catsup situation in discovery: won't be getting a catsup pump there because Discovery is eat in and eat out, people eating out won't be able to eat out with catsup, might not be convenient, but please bear with it

2. Campus Walks - couldn't do campus walk on Friday at 3pm, this week back on schedule; everyone is invited to go on walk with me; want to walk you all around campus and hear your concerns

3. Faculty Senate meetings - Senator Nikki Wenzel attended the Faculty Senate meeting for us, going to open it up to you all to be able to, this was the first time we went, I just wanted to prepare you for voting on reps next meeting

2. Committee meetings - Senate Judiciary 5pm tomorrow in Student Lounge; Elections Committee is Wed at 4pm in SC233; Constitutional Review is Thurs at 5pm in SC233

V. Old business

A. none

VI. New Business

A. Blurt Outs - RHA concerns - please take to Christine Warner, all business that hit's the floor please make formal business that represents school at large

-Senator Moss (Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.) - Delta's office needs to be painted from last time SGA was in there

-Senator Weber - when we vote on new clubs and orgs we should be concerned with who we vote for, after we vote them in it costs money for other orgs and SGA, maybe the clubs don't add to progressive advancement; also do away with matched funds - takes away from money for SGA and the places we really need it

-Senator Martin - second entrance Barclay people with larger vehicles hard to get back there, be easier back by CNU apts to turn around

-Senator Eggenberger (Class of 2004) - SGA meetings for next semester? (President Williams: response under announcements)

B. Blurt Ups

-Senator Atkins (MSA) - represent SGA as homecoming candidate, please assist me in making posters, thanks for help so far, MSA thanks for canned food drive, 357 pounds of canned foods

-Senator Peterlin (CAB) - those that participated in talent show, was awesome, everyone had great time, great talent

-Senator Hodges - blurt up people in cab and promotion for FallFest, lots of people making posters; making enormous banner and wanting people to participate making hand prints, making leaves on the banner

-Senator Wade - thanks for getting dumpster back at Barclay, and call box in the back

-Senator Weber - blurt up homecoming Pi Lambda Phi party

-Senator Martin - Senator Welch for homecoming King

-Senator Franklin - would like to thank Senator Orchison for getting the Pi Lambda Phi homecoming representative form in on time; wait, he didn't, never mind

-Senator Bryan (Biology Club) - Regatta's Halloween dinner was out of this world

-Senator Atkins (MSA) - Senator Rice did an awesome job Sat as the DJ at the MSA dance

-Senator Dunn (Psychology Club) - Psychology club and laboratories did an awesome job with their research project

-Senator Meyers (Pi Sigma Alpha) - blood drive and trick or treat for cans were both great

-Senator Orchison (Pi Lambda Phi) - thanks to Senator Weber for following his convictions about matched fund; also for Senator Franklin - people make mistakes; like to blurt up Pi Lambda Phi homecoming party this weekend at 8:30pm

-Senator Peterlin (CAB) - guys that are dancing in the Mr. GQ Pageant have been practicing hard and look like they are doing good

-Parliamentarian Maher - homecoming candidates and organizations are doing a great job campaigning, fliers and posters are everywhere

C. Announcements And Proposals

1. SGA meetings next semester will be at 5:30pm on Mondays in the Alumni Room

2. Proposals: none today

-Senator Herrin - Point of Order: time to allow for any other new business? the business being brought up is newish old business

-President Williams - needs to been have brought up during old business

-Senator Herrin - there was not enough time during old business for anything to be brought up

-President Williams - I'm sorry if you think there wasn't enough time, but we have already moved on
