

Explore Careers and Internships in Public History Education!

PIECE OF PUBLIC HISTORY:

*How Does
Colonial Williamsburg
Educate the Public?*

PRESENTED BY THE PUBLIC HISTORY CENTER
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4 • 12:30-1:15 P.M. • MCMURRAN 101
PIZZA LUNCH PROVIDED BY THE CAH DEAN'S OFFICE
ALL STUDENTS AND MAJORS WELCOME!

CAITLIN MCGEEVER received her BA in history at Christopher Newport University in 2012, and her MA in historical studies from the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. Her research explores 17th-century Quaker perspectives and gender roles. During her time at CNU she completed an internship at the Colonial Williamsburg Teacher Institute where she currently serves as education coordinator. In this role she provides week-long, graduate-level courses in American history for elementary and secondary school teachers from around the country.

Co-sponsored by

THE DEAN'S OFFICE IN THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES,
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, CENTER FOR CAREER PLANNING,
PHI ALPHA THETA, AND HISTORY CLUB

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT PUBLICHISTORYCENTER.CNU.EDU.

