on
MARY L. PASSAGE

"One thing I know: The only ones among you who will be really happy are those who will have sought and found how to serve."

—Albert Schweitzer

Whereas Mrs. Mary L. Passage has been through all her years Schweitzer's happy person, for she has lived as a steadfast and noble servant of the young and the old, of the gifted and the handicapped, of the literate and illiterate as witnessed first by her devotion to her professional roles as teacher, principal, and supervisor in the public schools of Concord, North Carolina, and Richmond and Newport News, Virginia; and second by her willful and thoughtful sharing of her time and talent as Chairman of the State Advisory Committee for Gifted Children, as member of the Virginia Peninsula Vocational Training Council, as a member of the Board of Directors of the Peninsula Nature and Science Museum, and as a member of the Peninsula Literacy Council; and

Whereas she has made a very special contribution to the development of Christopher Newport College as a member of the Board of Visitors during the nine formative years that followed the College's independence, which period culminated in her distinguished service as Rector of the Board; and

Whereas in her words and deeds, she has taught people and institutions to seek and find how to serve that they may come into an enduring happiness; be it therefore

RESOLVED that the Board of Visitors of Christopher Newport College does hereby confer on Mary L. Passage the Doctor of Laws Degree, honoris causa, with all rights and privileges attendant thereto, and does set the date of said conferral as May 18, 1986, on the occasion of the Ceremony of Graduation.

NOTE ON ACADEMIC DRESS

The history of academic dress goes back to the medieval European universities of the fourteenth century. Although European universities continue to follow varied patterns in cut and color of gown and type of headdress, the academic dress in the United States is generally standard. The gown is usually black; the pattern varies with the degrees held. The bachelor's gown is a relatively simple design, with long pointed sleeves as its distinguishing mark. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve, with the rear part square and the front part with a cutaway arc.

The most elaborate academic costume is the doctoral gown, with velvet panels down the front, and three bars of the same material across the sleeves. The velvet may be a color designating the academic discipline to which the degree pertains, e.g., dark blue for philosophy. The hood bears a still larger symbolic burden. The width of its velvet trimmings designates the level of the degree, the color heralds the major field of learning, and its lining identifies the institution that granted the degree, e.g., Christopher Newport College is symbolized by a lining of royal blue and silver.

Certain standard colors represent the academic disciplines. The color facing the hood, like the facing on the doctoral gown, indicates the following:

White:	arts and letters including journalism
Scarlet:	theology
Purple:	law
Green:	medicine
Dark Blue:	philosophy
Yellow:	science
Brown:	architecture and the fine arts
Lilac:	dentistry
Pink:	music
Orange:	engineering
Olive:	pharmacy
Light Brown:	business
Lemon Yellow:	library science
Light Blue:	education
Peacock Blue:	international affairs
Citron Yellow:	social work
Apricot:	nursing

At the discretion of the wearer, black may be substituted for any of these colors. A tassel of metallic gold indicates that the wearer holds a doctor's degree.
