Her Campus CNU Weekly Meeting: 8:00pm

Her Campus CNU will be having our weekly meeting on Thursday, October 6th, at 8pm in McM 112. We will be discussing three fundraising events, content and social media requirements for over Fall Break, and more! We're always looking for new members to join our team, so if you're interested, come on out to our weekly meeting!

Upcoming Events

Have Plastic Bags Lying Around? Donate them to Crochet for a Cause

Do your parents have a stash of plastic grocery bags hiding around in the house with nothing to use them for? Do you have your own stash hiding out in the corner of your room? If you answered yes to any of these questions, bring them back to campus because Crochet for a Cause will be collecting plastic grocery bags for the rest of the semester after we return from Fall Break! We are using the plastic bags to make sleeping mats for the homeless to have during the winter months and need lots of plastic bags to make them!

You can drop them off in Freeman 202 on Thursday, Oct. 13th between 12:30 - 1:30, and also to the History Department on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 11:30 - 1. On Tuesday, October 18th, we will be having a Bag Drive in the DSU Breezeway from 11:30 - 1:30 where you can drop them off, as well. We will provide more locations and dates as the weeks go on.

We hope you can help us help the homeless! Any questions can be sent to our email at crochet4cause@cnu.edu

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. - #SurvivorWeek

#REDgoesPINK all month long! Beginning next week we will feature stories of breast cancer survivors on our Instagram & Facebook pages. If you are or know someone who is a breast cancer survivor and would like to have their story shared, email us at dst@cnu.edu by Sunday, Oct. 9th with the subject line #SurvivorWeek

TITLE

No "Little-t" Truths:

Socrates against Relativism

TOPIC

The Greek philosopher Protagoras denied there are "big-T," absolute truth--there's only what's true for you, and what's true for me. But in Plato's Theaetetus, Socrates defends absolute truth by turning Protagoras' own view against him.

Come on and join us to hear about the twists and turn of Socrates's ingenious argument and eat some pizza!
