Religion, Ethics & Politics: Election Year Issues

April 9, 2016

The 7th Annual Hoaglund Conference at Christopher Newport University invites undergraduate and graduate students from all disciplines to submit paper proposals addressing the topic, "Religion, Ethics & Politics," broadly construed.

Abstract, Paper and Presentation Guidelines: Abstracts should provide an understanding of the main topics of the paper and should not exceed approximately 200 words in length. The recommended length of papers is 8-10 pages, double-spaced. Presentations will be 15-20 minutes in length including time for questions and answers.

Submission Protocol: Submit an abstract to samuel.atkinson.12@cnu.edu. Please remember to include name, title and institutional affiliation. Deadline for receipt of abstracts: March 15, 2015. Full length papers must be received by March 31st, 2015 in order to be considered for presentation at conference.
