

Resolution 2006-07-3

Whereas Dr. Lisa D. Spiller has a continuous record of outstanding teaching, and

Whereas Dr. Spiller has mentored student marketing teams leading to numerous regional and national awards, and

Whereas Dr. Spiller's research record includes more than 25 published articles and a textbook that has been adopted at 56 colleges and universities in 27 states, and

Whereas Dr. Spiller has been recognized by the Direct Marketing Educational Foundation with the national title of the 2005 Outstanding Direct Marketing Educator, several Faculty Leader Awards, a 1997 Distinguished Teaching Award, and several fellowships to participate in their Professors Institute, and

Whereas Dr. Spiller is dedicated to her profession as evidenced by her professional, university, and departmental service,

Therefore be it resolved that the Faculty Senate of Christopher Newport University recognizes and commends Dr. Lisa D. Spiller's outstanding contributions as a teacher, scholar, and colleague and deems her an exemplary member of our academic community.