5th Annual CAS Symposium on Homeland Security and Defense

The Center for American Studies is hosting its 5th annual Symposium on Homeland Security and Defense this February 10-11th. This year's theme is "Achieving Resilience through Public-Private Partnerships."

Keynote speakers include:

- J. Douglas Koelemay, Director, Office of Public-Private Partnerships, Commonwealth of Virginia
- Ron Plesco, National Lead, Cyber Investigations, Intelligence & Analytics, KPMG
- ADM James Loy (USGC, ret.), Senior Counselor, The Cohen Group; former Deputy Secretary of Homeland Security; former Commandant, U.S. Coast Guard
- John F. Reinhart, CEO and Executive Director, Virginia Port Authority
- Seth Stodder, Assistant Secretary for Threat Prevention and Security Policy, U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS)

A full symposium schedule is attached. All speakers and panels open to students will be taking place in the Gaines Theater. All students are encouraged to attend. It's a great opportunity to network and learn more about the topic from some of the leaders in the field.

Relay for Life Registration

This year relay is going to be on March 18th from 7pm - March 19th at 7am. This year our goal is to raise $55,000 dollars for cancer research. This year every person that preregisters online for relay will only have to pay $10 to either sign up for a team or as an individual. Then all you will have to do is check in the day of relay and you will be given a wristband that will allow you to come and go from the event as much as you would like. Registration at the door is going to be $12 or $8 for kids 11 and under. If you have any questions e-mail emma.davis.13@cnu.edu or cac@cnu.edu. Also if you or someone you know is a cancer survivor, please contact Jessica Hanson at jessica.hanson.12@cnu.edu to be included in the survivor dinner!

United Campus Ministries Potato Drop Bag-tying Event

UCM Annual Potato Drop Begins! This Friday, 2/12, from 12 noon - 5:00 p.m. we start with the bag-tying event that is needed for the Potato Drop. We will be tying bags for the potatoes that will be dropped on Saturday, 2/20, on campus. Between 12 noon and 5:00, in the Auxiliary Gym in the Freeman Center, come and tie bags with us, as we get ready for the Potato Drop.

If you can come for the whole time, that's great. If you can come a little while, that's great. Whatever works for your schedule to offer some volunteer hours will be terrific! All are invited to be part of this service project. We need these bags to put the potatoes in when they get "dropped" on the 20th. So, come out and help this Friday. Hope to see you then! For those of you who have responded to the email we sent out, thanks so much.

If you have questions, contact ucm@cnu.edu or Campus Minister Donna at donna.desarroyal@cnu.edu. See you Friday!

Free Thinkers at CNU Weekly Discussion- Can Morality Exist Without a God?

Can you have morality without the existence of God? What is the definition of human morality? What is the purpose of morality? Come to explore these and other questions with Free Thinkers at CNU! We will be meeting on Monday February 15th in McMurran 101 from 6:30pm-8:00pm.

Freethought is the application of critical thinking to all areas of human experience, unconstrained by tradition or authority. Freethinkers hold the belief that nothing is too sacred to be questioned, and seek to expand upon existential, theological, philosophical, and rational ideas and concepts. The Freethinkers of CNU seek to create an environment for discussion, expression, debate and education.

Contact rachel.wagner.15@cnu.edu with any questions!
