

Susan Barber <sbarber@cnu.edu>

Library News for Faculty

1 message

Announcement-Do Not Reply

Mon, Sep 30, 2013 at 7:31 AM

<announcement@cnu.edu>

To: faculty <faculty@cnu.edu>, employees <employees@cnu.edu>

Library News for Faculty

Fall 2013

Book Budget

The materials budget for the library for 2013 -2014 is ready to be spent! Do not hesitate to submit orders. We encourage you to use our online form:

<http://cnu.libguides.com/suggestmaterials> where you can suggest individual titles or upload your lists. Please remember that our first priority is support of the curriculum.

New Databases

Two significant databases area now available:

- Civil War: Antebellum to Reconstruction, 1843-1877 w/ Hartford Courant
- Early American Newspapers, Series I 1690-1876

These databases provide primary source material for early American history, but creative researchers will find that these newspapers are snapshots of American life in 18th and 19th centuries.

Library Programs Fall 2013

The Tribble Library is providing support for the following programs this Fall:

- Liz Jones Lecture, Friday Oct 11 Dr. Jodi Magness Masada: Last Stronghold of the Jewish Resistance Against Rome
- College of Social Science Scholarship Fall Series in the Luter Atrium 4-6 p.m.:
 - Oct 4 Dr. Kendra Knight (Not) worth fighting for: Factors predicting the avoidance of domestic labor conflict in marital dyads
 - Nov 8 Dr. Quentin Kidd The Rational Southerner
- Macbeth Festival, in conjunction with the Medieval and Renaissance Studies Program:
 - Oct 29 - Orson Wells' Macbeth at 7:30 p.m. in Gaines Theater

- Oct 30 – Kurosawa's Throne of Blood at 7:30 p.m. in Gaines Theater
- Oct 31 – Three events:
 1. Panel Discussion The Witchcraft, Demonology & Stagecraft of Macbeth at 12:20 – 1:30 p.m. in the Blechman Room, Tribble Library
 2. Witches of Macbeth Costume Contest at 6:30 – 7 p.m. in the DSU Crow's Nest
 3. Polanski's Macbeth at 7:30 p.m. in the Music and Theater Hall