Colleagues--

I am pleased to share with you that Dr. Laura Deiulio has agreed to serve as Vice Provost effective January 3, 2011. Laura holds the rank of associate professor in the Department of Modern and Classical Languages and Literatures, where she specializes in German. She is currently the Chair of MCLL, and Dean Breese will soon appoint a successor. Laura served as co-chair of the Liberal Learning Council in AY 04-05 and Chair of the UCC in AY 05-06. I am grateful for her willingness to take up the important role of Vice Provost.

I am studying the duties of and needs for the Vice Provost and Associate Provost offices and will set some new reporting and oversight duties in the next few months. I expect that the Vice Provost will continue to provide the faculty with an important administrative resource.

I remain sincerely grateful to Ronnie Cohen for her continuing, gracious, and invaluable help this fall term as Interim Vice Provost, an office in which she stepped for the semester only to aid the University during a time of administrative transition.

Mark
