Hello!

"Leaders must be close enough to relate to others, but far enough ahead to motivate them."

- John Maxwell

The Office of Student Activities believes that leadership, both inside and outside of the classroom, should be celebrated. We are pleased to announce that nominations are now being accepted for the 2011-2012 Student Leadership Awards.

On April 9, 2012 at 6:30 p.m. in the DSU Ballroom, we are hosting the annual CNU Student Leadership Awards Ceremony.

The purpose of this event is to acknowledge the outstanding efforts of students, advisors, and student organizations during the current academic year and to recognize the leadership achievements of our students in their academics and co-curricular activities. Does your department or office offer a leadership award or honor students for leadership in your discipline? I would like to invite you to consider presenting that award at this ceremony. It is a catered dessert reception with the University's leadership invited, as well as our top student leaders from across campus. It is an elegant and fitting way to recognize the achievements of our students.

The Office of Student Activities will be presenting several campus-wide student leadership awards, highlighted by the presentation of the Dean's Service Award to no more than five senior students who have demonstrated exceptional service and leadership to the University over their time at CNU.

If your department or office would like to participate, please fill out the attached "Award Presentation" form and return it to the Office by March 19, 2012 at 5 p.m.

Due to the campus-wide nature of this event, it may be necessary to limit the number of presentations by each department/office. In addition to department recognitions and the Dean's Service Award (for outstanding senior students), you are encouraged to consider nominating a student, student organization and/or a student organization advisor for one of the campus-wide award categories. Attached you will find a listing of all awards with their descriptions.

The 2011-2012 Award Nomination Form is located online.

I am excited about the opportunity to recognize outstanding students at CNU and hope that you will join us in applauding their efforts. I welcome the chance to discuss this event in more detail with you. Please contact me at 594-7260. Information about the Student Leadership Awards can be found here.

All award presentation forms and award nominations must be submitted by Monday, March 19, 2011 at 5 p.m..

All nominators and nominees are also invited to attend the ceremony on April 9th.

Specific Campus-Wide Awards

- Campus-Wide Program of the Year
- Dean's Service Award - presented to up to 5 outstanding senior students; recipients of this award MUST be nominated by members of the campus community
