Dear Colleagues,

As you know, the Commonwealth of Virginia is saving millions of dollars by requiring state employees to take one furlough day without pay this fiscal year. Fortunately, the General Assembly approved language that allows institutions of higher education to achieve their savings in other ways.

I greatly appreciate your commitment to our students and all that you contribute to make CNU such a special place. Accordingly, I am pleased to report that we will not furlough any of our employees this year.

I hope you will have a wonderful weekend.

Paul Tribble
