Student Veterans Organization - Veterans Day Events

The SVO will be on hand to give out red, white, and blue ribbons as well as decorate the great lawn with flags. At 11:00 am the University will host its wreath laying ceremony and color guard/TAPS presentation.

This afternoon, the SVO will be hosting a movie screening for the IVET Organization. IVET is a local organization dedicated to helping veterans overcome issues they face as they return home. The movie is called Project 22 and is about two veterans who undertake a motorcycle journey across America. Along the way they talk with other veterans about issues they face and what alternate methods of therapy are out there. The founder of IVET, retired Brigadier General Jeff Horne will be on hand to speak and answer questions.

This will take place in Forbes 1022 from 6:30 to 9:00 pm.

Media Matter - Final Cut Pro X Training Session: 10:00am and 3:00pm

Final Cut Pro X - Getting Starting

Want to have more control over your footage than simply using iMovie? FCP may be what you need. Learn essential tasks such as organizing clips, best practices and assembling a coherent project. Compressor will also be covered. Intended for users who have working knowledge of iMovie or other similar video programs.

Media Matter sessions are held on the second floor of the Tribble Library in the Media Center. Feel free to bring your laptop. Please register via the link for the session you plan to attend:

CAB Presents...Diversity University: 7:30pm

Take it first hand from the foster kid who struggled for the opportunity to make it to college and the party girl who almost gave it all away; the biggest obstacle that will stand in the way of you and your TRU potential, is yourself. From broken homes, poverty, abuse and foster care, to family tragedies, bullying, rehab, and even rape, they could have easily fallen under the radar. Monti Washington and Julia Garcia are living examples that if you are TRU to yourself, than anything is truly possible!

Date: TODAY Wed. 11/11/15

Time: 7:30 PM

Location: Gaines Theater

Note: PLP Passport and Cultural Plunge Event!
