The Ferguson Center is proud to announce

My Stage@The Ferg is a new (free!) social/civic engagement program which will offer special events (social/business networking opportunities) for Hampton Roads' college-age and young professionals in conjunction with Ferguson Center performances.

My Stage@TheFerg components include:

- A programming advisory panel
- Discounted tickets

Pre- and post-show events

Additional gatherings that will engage and inspire this younger audience to take an active role in supporting, promoting and celebrating the performing arts

Are you a young professional in the Hampton Roads area interested in the performing arts? Do you know a young adult that would enjoy getting involved with the Ferguson Center? My Stage@The Ferg invites anyone in the 18-35 year-old range who is interested in serving on the advisory panel or becoming a member (it's free!) to sign up by contacting mystage@fergusoncenter.org.
