Caleb Dwight West, Jr.

Caleb Dwight West, Jr., receives today an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Christopher Newport College. As an honor of civic merit, the degree evidences the academic community's appreciation for his life-long interest in the progress and success of many and varied organizations and causes which have been enriched by his service. On each, he has left and continues to leave an indelible mark.

Mr. West was educated in Newport News and furthered his education at Davidson College in North Carolina.

Mr. West is a living symbol of the great American ideal which summons men and women to combine business success with social service, with a special focus on pride of place. Throughout his years, Mr. West has been among the Peninsula's leading businessmen and philanthropists. His interests and contributions have been varied and, taken together, they have brought into being and given shape to the economic, social and cultural lives of the Peninsula. Among his activities are his board office or membership in the Virginia Peninsula Economic Development Council; Regional Redevelopment and Housing Authority of Hampton and Newport News; Newport News and Hampton Real Estate Board; Peninsula Association of Home Builders; Virginia Association of Insurance Agents; Peninsula Association of Insurance Agents; and the Warwick National Bank.

His civic honors have been many, among those being the first recipient of the Young Man of the Year by the Junior Chamber of Commerce; the 1983 recipient of the Distinguished Citizen Award by the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce; and the recipient of the Brotherhood Citation of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

His civic contributions too, have been many. Among those are the Peninsula United Fund; American Red Cross; Christian Businessmen's Luncheon Committee; Contact Teleministry USA, Inc; Contact Peninsula; Honorary Director, Boy's Club of the Virginia Peninsula; Peninsula United Fund; Peninsula Pastoral Counseling; Peninsula Orchestra Association; Hampton Roads German Club; and the Peninsula Nature and Science Center.

Christopher Newport College is proud, by conferring its Doctorate of Laws degree, to attest to the pride, esteem and affection of the entire community for Caleb Dwight West, Jr., who has served and continues to serve with such honor and distinction.

Because of the circumstances which require that the list of names be furnished to the printer in final form, it is possible that one or more of the candidates listed herein may have been unable to complete all degree requirements. Inability to remove a name at the last moment does not commit the College to grant a diploma to a person thus listed in error.

*Contingent upon successful completion of degree requirements.

Commencement ushers are provided by Alpha Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Theta, and Pi Kappa Sigma Sororities of Christopher Newport College.

The Tradition of the Academic Costume

The academic costume of cap and gown worn by the faculty and students in today's commencement had its origin in the universities of the Middle Ages. Reference to exacting detail on wearing the academic costume can be found as early as 1321. Although the exact reason for the original use of the costume is not known, it is presumed that there was a very practical reason--medieval scholars probably wore the gown and hood for warmth in their unheated buildings. Students of that era wore their gowns daily, setting them apart from fellow citizens and giving rise to the term "town and gown."

In the United States, caps and gowns were worn daily by students at most American universities until the time of the Civil War. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1894. Later guidelines on academic costume were established by the American Council on Education.

Gowns worn are generally black and the sleeves of the gown indicate the degree held by the wearer. Closed, pointed sleeves are used for the bachelor's gown; oblong sleeves, open at the wrist, for the master's gown; and bell-shaped sleeves, with three velvet bars, for the doctor's gown. The doctoral robe has full-length velvet panels in front, either black or of a color symbolizing the wearer's field of learning.

Standard colors are used to represent the various academic disciplines. Some of the colors that will be seen in today's ceremony indicate the following fields: white-- arts and sciences: scarlet--theology; dark blue--philosophy; yellow--science; brown--fine arts; pink--music; light brown--business; lemon yellow--library science; light blue--education; and peacock blue--international affairs.

The hood is a separate ornamental fold hanging down the back of the gown. An outside band of velvet on the hood varies in width according to the degree: two inches for the bachelor's; three for the master's; and five for the doctors. The color of the band and other velvet on the doctoral hood symbolize the field of learning. The length of the hood also varies with the degree, with the longer the hood, the more advanced the degree.

(Bachelor's and master's degree holders often do not wear their hoods.) The lining of the hood carries the colors of the college or university granting the degree. Christopher Newport College is symbolized by a lining of royal blue and silver.

The cap worn is usually the black mortarboard, decorated with a tassel which is black or a color symbolizing the field of higher learning. Gold tassels may be worn by holders of doctoral degrees, and some master's tassels are white.

Candidates for degrees frequently wear tassels on the right side of the mortarboard and then shift them to the left in unison when the degree is conferred.
