  - a. Senate Proposal 03.05- revised edition (Senator Rankin):
    - i. Senator Diggs: Motion to open discussion
    - ii. Senator Bailey: Second
    - iii. Unanimous Consent
      - 1. Senator Diggs: Have proposal state jaywalk, jayride
      - 2. Senator Salemme: Is the bill to include middle of streets?
      - 3. Senator Andrews: It hinders students ability to make decisions, should expand freedoms, not limit them
      - 4. Senator Jaeschke: Monetary to hourly service fines: money isn't as good punishment as physical labor. Specify that police can't authorize service hours, should it go to judicial affairs?

5. Senator Stump: Seems very unfavorable
6. Justice Brooks: Dangerous to recommend fines, since they can change after we vote on it.
7. Secretary Grace: lots of student opposition opposed to bill
8. Senator Blunt: Spike in alcohol violations with this
9. Senator Andrews: In constitution best interest: Brooks: general job, to protect well being of subjects.
- iv. Senator Jaeschke: Move to close discussion
- v. Senator Birth: Second
- vi. Unanimous consent

  - i. Motion to open discussion stump,
  - ii. Senator Salemme: Second
  - iii. Vote: 16-1-0 Motion Passes
    1. Senator Salemme : New courses created: nothing to do with new courses,
    2. Senator Andrews: How easy to change that: doesn't make difference if you have 4 or 6 of these classes
    3. Senator Stump: Start next semester? It will either start next semester, next fall
    4. Senator Blunt: How will it affect schools budget? Does not affect budget
    5. Senator Jaeschke: Why six? No limit allows no structure; say no cap, if you are interested.
    6. Senator Stump: Want to only expand it a little, still have other courses to take.
    7. President Farooq: Any combination towards total, credits wise; doesn't make much of difference
    8. Senator Andrews: Max of credit hours, instead of number of courses
    9. President Farooq: Suggest friendly amendment; (no friendly amendments)
    10. Senator Jaeschke: Move to close
    11. Senator Peresich: Second
