

Senate resolution on Faculty Stewardship of Curricula

Whereas the faculty of the university, as academic content experts, are the appropriate primary stewards of the university curriculum; and

Whereas the faculty take their curricular responsibilities so seriously that they welcome advisory consultation from all constituencies of the university;

Be it therefore resolved that the faculty senate of Christopher Newport University reaffirms the University Handbook regulations regarding curricular process and greatly appreciates the continued respect for this process.