CAB Presents...Build-A-Buddy Sign-ups: 11:00am-1:00pm

Build-A-Buddy is back! Come out with your friends and stuff your favorite animal on November 11th from 4-7pm in the DSU Ballroom! Sign-ups for the animal of your choice will take place on this Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 11am-1pm. Hurry and sign up before the animals are gone!

Elizabeth's Book Drive with APO: 11:00am-2:00pm

This week is Alpha Phi Omega's National Service Week. Our event for this week is Elizabeth's Book Drive. Elizabeth's Book Drive was started by an Alpha Delta Xi Brother's family in memory of Elizabeth Luke Matthes. Its goal is to provide new and gently used books to children in hospitals and orphanages. Please donate any children books you have during our tabling all this week Nov. 7th - Nov. 11th in the DSU 11am-2pm

Fall 2017 Semester Abroad Interest Meeting: 12:30pm

Want to study abroad next fall? Come to MCM 164 at 12:30PM on September 8th to learn about our programs and how you can have the semester of a lifetime! We hope to see you there!

Election Night Watch Party Tonight: 6:30pm

Election Day is here! After you've gone out to cast your vote, join us in watching the election coverage live! There will be free pizza and Chick-fil-A, activities, and discussion and commentary with CNU faculty. The doors to Gaines will open at 6:30 PM for live coverage and will go til our new president is elected (or 1 AM). See you tonight!

Latino Student Association: 7:00pm

Meeting today at 7p in MCM 164! Meetings are open to everyone. We are Latino based, not Latino exclusive.

This is a great opportunity for Spanish majors, minors, or those just interested in the culture and language to get involved, learn and become part of the Spanish community around them! If you can't make it to today's meeting, then don't worry cause we meet every Tuesday at 7p in MCM 164! See you there!

Baptist Collegiate Ministries Collide: 7:00pm

Join BCM for a field trip this week! We are meeting in the Madison room in the DSU at 7 p.m. to meet up and eat snacks, and then we will go out to buy supplies for Operation Christmas Child boxes. Rides will be provided. We hope to see you there!

Cross Impact CNU Bible Study: 7:00pm

Join us tonight for our weekly Bible study where we will continue in the book of John.

We meet in MCM 312 from 7:00-8:00 p.m.

As always, we will have free desserts!

Everyone is welcome. Bring your friends and we hope to see you there!

Contact brooklynn.johnson.14@cnu.edu with any questions.

Upcoming Events

CAB takes Spoken Word Poets

CAB is hosting a spoken word poet, Lacey Roop, on Saturday, November 19, at 8pm in the Crow's Nest, and we would like to invite students to perform one of their own spoken word poems before the event. If you are interested, you can email cassie.parkins.13@cnu.edu or cab@cnu.edu, with your name, the topic/name of your poem, and an estimate of how long it is. Please email this info by Sunday, November 13 at 5 p.m. Lacey Roop is a fantastic poet, and we would love for students to be part of this event!

Pocahontas Movie Night with the History Club

We will watch the Disney movie Pocahontas, then discuss the historical inaccuracies with the movie and its affect on American society and their impression of American history with Dr. Shuck-Hall from the history department. This will count as an Honors event. The event will be held in McMurran 114 on 11/9 from 8:00 PM-11:00 PM. Please Contact Colleen Burke for further information and questions at colleen.burke.13@cnu.edu.

Campus Programs and Announcements

Registered to Vote in Newport News?

If you are registered to vote here in Newport News, please note that your polling location is HIDDENWOOD RETIREMENT COMMUNITY, located about a mile off campus at 50 Wellesley Drive. If you have registered to vote here, remember that you cannot request an absentee ballot and must vote at your designated precinct. Please plan ahead for election day to ensure you can get to your polling location!

Documentary Making Class open to Freshmen

Freshmen may enroll in a documentary video making class in Spring '17—ENGL 462: Community Storytelling & Documentary Studies (Wed., 4-6:45 p.m.). There are no prerequisites.

Our focus will be on developing techniques for storytelling and for video documentary making, with a focus on the stories community elders. You will spend the semester visiting an elder or couple, spending time in a variety of ways, such as dining together, going to a place of worship together, or maybe just interviewing them in their home. Generally, students produce multimedia content, mixing voice recording, video, still photography, and prose. Students who need recording equipment can borrow from my shelf or from the library media center—or use a SmartPhone. You can see past student work on our www.wisdomofageproject.org/hr website.

Freshmen are welcome—and have done some of the best work in the class. You can find the syllabus for the last time I gave the class at <http://www.risingpress.org/cnu/462S15/>.

For questions, contact Dr. Terry Lee at tlee@cnu.edu.

Islamic Philosophy course Spring 2017

Islamic Philosophy (PHIL 349) will be offered in the spring. This course counts toward the minor in Middle East and North Africa Studies and the Area of Inquiry (Global Perspectives). Please see attachment.

Win $1,000 by competing for the Borgenicht Fellowship Prize

The Reiff Center is pleased to announce our second annual $1,000 Borgenicht Fellowship Prize for the best scholarly or creative student project proposal(s) related to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and peace process. The fellowship is named for the late Louis Borgenicht, author of The Happiest Man, which prophesied the need for rapprochement and peace between Arabs and Jews. Awardees must send a progress report to the Center's director after a period of time determined by the awardee and director. A final product (publication, exhibition, etc.) is expected.

Finished projects must be completed by December 2, 2016.

Please use the link to submit your project: <http://cnu.edu/reiffcenter/forstudents/>. Contact Dr. Tatiana Rizova with questions.

AttachmentStudent Tickets for Big Head Blues Club featuring Big Head Todd and The Monsters

with Mud Morganfield, Billy Branch, and Ronnie Baker Brooks present 'The Songs of Willie Dixon'

Thursday, November 10 @ 7:30 PM

Student Price: $15 (Please bring your CNU I.D. to the ticket office)

If you're a fan of Muddy Waters and Bo Diddley, or even Led Zeppelin, Jimi Hendrix and the Rolling Stones, then you've heard the songs of Willie Dixon. This season, Big Head Todd and the Monsters will join forces with three second-generation blues stars to pay tribute to Dixon, one of the pillars of modern blues and most influential songwriters of early rock and roll. Joining the band for this tour will be Mud Morganfield, the eldest son of Muddy Waters; Grammy Award nominee Billy Branch; and accomplished blues guitarist Ronnie Baker Brooks, son of Chicago blues master Lonnie Brooks. Together, these artists form the 2016 incarnation of the Big Head Blues Club, armed with their own blues material as well as a playlist from Willie Dixon, possibly the most prolific and accomplished songwriter in modern blues and rock.
