Dear all,

CNU Asian Studies' and the William and Mary Confucius Institute's special course on Ethnic Dance of China, led by Prof. Lu Gao, begins tomorrow, Thursday, January 22; class will meet from 4:30 - 6:30 in Ferguson Dance Studio, T177, every Thursday throughout the semester from tomorrow forward.

The class is free to faculty, staff and students and will offer instruction in Tibetan, Uyghur and other ethnic Chinese dance styles. All are very welcome, though we encourage all interested to contact Prof. Gao at lu.gao@cnu.edu as early as possible, as the studio will accommodate only a limited number of students.

Very best,
Jonathan Smith
