The RA Application Closes Today

The application for Resident Assistants for the 2016-17 academic year is closes TODAY! Applications are due tonight, by 11:59 pm. Visit www.CNU.edu/reslife/jobs for the application and more information.

Meatless Mondays

Vegetarian Club asks the CNU community to participate in Meatless Mondays. It is as easy as choosing to eat non-meat meals for one day! Vegetarian club is promoting this worldwide movement in an attempt to reduce CNU's carbon footprint and help fight against animal cruelty. We invite all members of the CNU community to sign the Meatless Monday pledge and help CNU join this movement at the website below! 150 people have already signed the pledge... Will you?

<http://cnu.meatlessmondaypledge.com/>

If you have any questions about the campaign or you are interested in joining Vegetarian Club feel free to contact Amy Gaulton at amy.gaulton.11@cnu.edu

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated Seasonal Wraps Drive

The Nu Epsilon Chapter is collecting winter clothing to donate to those in need for the upcoming winter season and we need your help! We will be collecting from Monday, October 26 until Friday, November 13. Please leave new or gently worn clothing in the pink crates located in the DSU across from the ATM. If you have any questions regarding the drive, feel free to contact Janai Norman at Janai.norman.13@cnu.edu

Txt 4 Cookie - Cru: Today

Want free cookies?

Have a question about God/religion?

Just text "CNUcookies" to 85005 TODAY until 7pm.

Fill out a quick survey, ask your question about God, and then Cru will deliver cookies to you and help answer your question Tuesday evening!

"Stroll to the Polls III" Ticket Sale: 11:00am-2:00pm

"Stroll to the Polls" brings the vision of Alpha Phi Alpha's nation program "A Voteless People Is A Hopeless People" to CNU. It educates students on the importance of voting, allows individuals to vote on winners of the competition, and offers voter registration for upcoming elections. "Stroll" involves teams from CNU organizations competing in a dance ("stroll-off") competition and educational speakers.

Purchase your tickets this week in the David Student Union breezeway from 11-2PM.

Looking for a Minor That Makes a Difference in the World? Consider Civic Engagement (CESE)

Looking for a Minor That Makes a Difference in the World?

Consider Minorng in Civic Engagement & Social Entrepreneurship, an interdisciplinary minor open to all students in all majors. For more information, contact Professor Roberta Rosenberg (rosenb@cnu.edu) or Professor Stephanie Bardwell (bardwell@cnu.edu) for more information. For more information, consult the CNU Catalog: http://cnu.edu/english/minors/civic_engagement.pdf

CNU's 8th Annual Food For Thought Campaign

CNU's 8th Annual Food For Thought Campaign is underway!

Each October, the CNU Community comes together to consider and combat hunger in our region. Students, Faculty, and Staff support local families by stocking the shelves of the Foodbank through the "Weight of Hunger Challenge".

Sign up your student group, organization, dorm floor, or just a group of friends, to compete in the challenge to see who can add the most "weight" to the Food Bank of the VA Peninsula. Register your group here: <http://survey.constantcontact.com/survey/a07ebq2a38sifzezcfb/start>.

Collect non-perishable food items and/or money ($1=5lbs. of food for the Foodbank!) and bring it all to the Food For Thought Finale on Friday, November 13th, 11 a.m. - 3 p.m., CNU Tribble Plaza.

For more information on Food For Thought events, visit engage.cnu.edu or the Center for Community Engagement, Luter 144.

Bonner Service Scholars present "A Place At The Table"

As part of CNU's 8th Annual Food For Thought Campaign, the Bonner Service Scholars are hosting a screening of "A Place At The Table" on Wednesday, October 28th, from 7:00-9:00pm in the Freeman Center's Gaines Theater.

From the producers of Food, Inc., "A Place At The Table" is an eye-opening film that looks at the food crisis in America (1 in 4 children in the US don't know where their next meal is coming from). It is a powerful film showing the struggle and pervasiveness of food insecurity happening in our country.

Please bring a friend, and a canned good or $2 donation ($2 = 10lbs of food at the VA Peninsula Foodbank!) and support Food For Thought and the Foodbank.

PFAC Day of the Dead and Halloween Celebration

The Peninsula Fine Arts Center will host its 3rd Annual Day of the Dead celebration on Halloween this year, exploring how cultures celebrate around the world.

The Day of the Dead and Halloween Celebration will be from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Oct. 31 at the art center. Admission is free. Young attendees are encouraged to wear costumes for a costume parade in the garden. Food will be available for purchase from El Dorado, offering flautas, taquitos and gorditas.

From 12:30 to 1 p.m., dancer Ann Mazzocca will share a taste of the Day of the Dead as it is celebrated in Haiti. At 1 p.m., costumed attendees will be invited to show off their outfits and hunt for treats in our Halloween Costume Parade, to be held in the garden weather-permitting (otherwise, it will be held indoors).

Throughout the event and until 5 p.m., A Mile of Smiles will offer face painting for $3 for children and $5 for adults.

The Peninsula Fine Arts Center is located at 101 Museum Drive within Mariners' Museum Park in Newport News, Va. The center is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday and 1 to 5 p.m. Sundays; PFAC is closed on Mondays. Admission is regularly $7.50 for adults, $4 for children (ages 6-12) and free for children 5 and under. Annual membership is $40 for individuals and $60 for families. For more information, call (757) 596-8175 or visit www.pfac-va.org.
