Dear Colleagues,

This year, to celebrate Christmas and the Holiday Season, Rosemary and I invite you and your families to a festive evening of very special events on Sunday, December 8.

Please plan to join us at 4:00 p.m. for Holiday Happening 2013 in the Concert Hall of the Ferguson Center and enjoy the remarkable talent that abounds on this campus. I promise that you will be in the spirit of the season after hearing our student ensembles (the CNU Men's and Women's Chorus, the jazz ensemble, the University Orchestra and the Chamber Choir, just to name a few) perform classic holiday tunes. This event is open to the public at a cost of $5 per ticket, but for members of the CNU faculty and staff, we are offering four free tickets per family. To get your four tickets, simply stop by the Ferguson Center ticket office (with your CNU ID) by Friday, November 22. The ticket office is open Monday-Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Immediately following the Holiday Happening concert, we will transition from the Concert Hall to the Great Lawn for an exciting CNU tradition, The Lighting of the Lawn. At 6 p.m., we will magically transform the Great Lawn into a campus-wide holiday celebration featuring Santa's Village, a tour of beautifully decorated trees in all of the lobbies, roving carolers, festive beverages and food offerings, family activities and the lighting of the CNU tree at the center of the Great Lawn. The Lighting of the Lawn is free and open to the public and you do not have to attend Holiday Happening to enjoy this event.

Best wishes,

Paul Tribble
