Parlor Songs - A Musical Soiree: 4:00pm

Friday, January 22, 4pm - Blechman Room, Tribble Library

All faculty and students from the College of Arts and Humanities are invited to "Parlor Songs," presented by Tribble Library and the Department of Music on Friday, January 22 at 4 pm in the Blechman Room. This concert features historical retellings and musical performances of pieces of nineteenth- and twentieth-century sheet music from the library's Josephine

L. Hughes Collection. All pieces will be performed live by students, who will also share backstories that they researched in Dr. Ward-Griffin's MUSC 305W course in the fall semester. Ranging from English ballads to saxophone ragtimes, these pieces provide a glimpse into the world of music making in America before World War II.

Admission is free.

CAB presents...Movie: Straight Outta Compton: 9:00pm

Movie synopsis: In 1987, five young men, using brutally honest rhymes and hardcore beats, put their frustration and anger about life in the most dangerous place in America into the most powerful weapon they had: their music. Taking us back to where it all began, Straight Outta Compton tells the true story of how these cultural rebels-armed only with their lyrics, swagger, bravado and raw talent-stood up to the authorities that meant to keep them down and formed the world's most dangerous group, N.W.A. And as they spoke the truth that no one had before and exposed life in the hood, their voice ignited a social revolution that is still reverberating today.

Dates: Fri. Jan. 22 and Sat. Jan. 23

Time: 9 PM

Location: Gaines

Free popcorn served and giveaways
