Dear All,

In celebration of the Chinese New Year, CNU Asian Studies, in collaboration with the Confucius Institute of the College of William and Mary, is hosting a Chinese Culture Day this coming Sunday, February 22, in the D.S.U. Ballroom between 2:00 and 6:00 PM.

The event is free of charge for all, and should be a fun family event -- we encourage you to circulate at your leisure from station to station to enjoy and participate in Chinese calligraphy (have your name rendered in Chinese characters, for instance), traditional paper cutting, Tai Chi, tea preparation, paper cutting, and more; also challenge yourself in our chopsticks competition, enjoy performances on or try your hand at traditional musical instruments including the Chinese harp, and explore a collection of regalia representing many of China's ethnic minority peoples, currently on loan to CNU from the Chinese Embassy in Washington, D.C.

Please see the flyer attached -- we look forward to seeing many of you there on Sunday afternoon!
