Friday, January 29, 4pm - Blechman Room, Tribble Library

All faculty and students from the College of Arts and Humanities are invited to "Parlor Songs," presented by Tribble Library and the Department of Music on Friday, January 29 at 4 pm in the Blechman Room. This concert features historical retellings and musical performances of pieces of nineteenth- and twentieth-century sheet music from the library's Josephine L. Hughes Collection. All pieces will be performed live by students, who will also share backstories that they researched in Dr. Ward-Griffin's MUSC 305W course in the fall semester. Ranging from English ballads to saxophone ragtimes, these pieces provide a glimpse into the world of music making in America before World War II.

Admission is free.
