Even more importantly, we want you to lead a life of significance. With that in mind, we have designed an undergraduate experience to instruct and inspire great leaders for the 21st century. We want students who will make the world a better place – young women and men who have a passion for engagement and a strong sense of civic responsibility.

Christopher Newport's outstanding liberal arts and sciences curriculum shapes hearts and minds for a lifetime of service. From the moment you arrive on campus, you will enjoy countless opportunities to develop strong leadership traits. You will work together on projects and initiatives that make a lasting impact on our campus, community and the world.

I invite you to explore Christopher Newport and discover how you can make a significant difference and have the best four years of your life. Find out who we are and how you'll fit in. It's all about fit – the size, the place, the people and a community dedicated to your success. We hope you will visit us soon to experience the magic of Christopher Newport University.

Pat Trible

CHRISTOPHER NEWPORT UNIVERSITY attracts outstanding students and prepares them to lead meaningful and consequential lives. We don't train our students to simply memorize and recite facts, but instruct and inspire them to think critically and actively engage in their community. Here you'll discover a vibrant campus as you pursue great dreams for your future and prepare to change the world for the better.

SCHOLARSHIP • LEADERSHIP • SERVICE • HONOR

“ON MY HONOR, I will maintain the highest standards of honesty, integrity and personal responsibility. This means I will not lie, cheat or steal, and as a member of this academic community, I am committed to creating an environment of respect and mutual trust.”

— CNU HONOR CODE

The Christopher Newport EXPERIENCE

At Christopher Newport you'll learn the answers to two very important questions — “What am I good at?” and “What do I love to do?” Whatever your passions lead you to study — from electrical engineering to philosophy of law, from music performance to accounting — the liberal arts and sciences are the foundation of your academic endeavors. Here we don't teach you to do something; we prepare you to do anything.

Liberal Arts and SCIENCES

Many of the top careers today didn't exist 20 years ago. Studying the liberal arts and sciences provides a breadth of knowledge that will prepare you to take advantage of any opportunity that presents itself in today's global marketplace. Think of the liberal arts and sciences as your academic fitness routine. You invest your energy now, getting in academic shape to provide a strong foundation for success. Through Christopher Newport's rigorous curriculum you will learn how to think critically and communicate effectively while developing the tools and skills that will serve you for a lifetime of significance. Depth of knowledge is attained junior and senior year after declaring your academic major.

Academic EXCELLENCE

The undergraduate academic experience represents the heart of our university. Our small class sizes give you direct access to experts in their fields – teacher-scholars who provide outstanding instruction, conduct groundbreaking research, and publish noteworthy books and articles. Our professors' passion is teaching, and you'll enjoy the intellectual challenge of working alongside them on exciting projects.

Endless POSSIBILITIES

Map a future of endless possibilities through your academic courses and activities that complement your passions and goals. Through the classes you select and your extracurricular endeavors, you have the opportunity to customize your education, preparing yourself to thrive in either graduate school or your career of choice. Personal attention — a CNU hallmark — helps make this possible.

Christopher Newport is the nation's only public institution to our core curriculum.

Preparing You for SUCCESS

At Christopher Newport we are here to support your academic progress and transition into college life as you become an active part of our community. We will ask you to work harder than you ever have before, but we'll be with you every step of the way.

Learning COMMUNITIES

All freshmen are placed into a Learning Community based on your interests, which facilitates a successful transition from high school to college. Living and sharing multiple classes with a small group of students and collaborating with faculty will promote learning beyond the classroom while providing extra support.

Faculty Core ADVISERS

All first-year students are assigned a faculty core adviser to work closely with you the first two years, helping you become integrated into campus life and encouraging your exploration of academics and activities. Your adviser will meet with you regularly, providing insight regarding academic expectations, offering support, introducing you to campus resources and engagement opportunities, and fostering an environment of shared responsibility and mutual respect. These first two years will provide a foundation for your major studies as you explore a wide variety of subjects.

Declaring Your MAJOR

You will officially declare your major on Signing Day, a special tradition held during spring semester of your sophomore year. Then spend the next two years pursuing your passion, focused on your chosen area of study. Once you have declared your major, you will be assigned a faculty major adviser from within that department who will guide you in the completion of your academic requirements and the transition into graduate school or career opportunities.

Center for Academic SUCCESS

Throughout the CNU experience, the Center for Academic Success offers tutoring, workshops, seminars and one-on-one assistance to help you improve your academic performance with effective study strategies. Peer writing consultants available in the Writing Center offer specialized help with all stages of the academic writing process.

Center for Career PLANNING

The Center for Career Planning directly assists you with academic major exploration, landing a first job or getting into a top graduate school. Workshops, seminars, job fairs, on-campus interviews and career counseling — a full range of services — are available to students and alumni.

SCHOLARSHIP

“ Christopher Newport stresses the importance of scholarship. My professors wanted me to succeed, not just in the classroom but also throughout college and life. The liberal arts and sciences curriculum made me a well-rounded student, allowing me to take classes beyond my field of study. I was challenged to learn outside the traditional classroom setting through academic conferences, study abroad and more. I have always been a good student, but Christopher Newport helped me become a great scholar. ”

Hands-On EXPERIENCES

In addition to studying alongside expert professors in accounting, finance, management and marketing, you'll gain hands-on experience through internships, mentorships and other business-related activities. We have a tradition of winning top honors, capturing national and international awards, and competing against top business schools in direct marketing, case competitions and small business entrepreneurship. Our business students historically place within the 90th percentile on the AACSB national Major Field Test. Additionally, each year our accounting students participate in the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program to provide free tax assistance for low-income taxpayers. Students help prepare more than 200 state and federal tax returns annually.

The Luter School has the international stamp of excellence, accreditation from the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). Less than 5 percent of the world's business schools have achieved AACSB accreditation. Employers look for applicants from high-quality, AACSB accredited schools.

Pre-Law PROGRAM

Interested in pursuing a career in law? The nation's top law schools seek applicants who have received a well-rounded undergraduate education — one like the liberal arts and sciences curriculum Christopher Newport offers. Many of our pre-law students pursue a philosophy of law minor or an American studies major with a constitutional studies concentration, but regardless of your undergraduate field of study, our Pre-Law Program is designed to help you gain admission to one of the nation's top 25 law schools and become a successful lawyer.

Program BENEFITS

We set you on the path to success through helpful resources and services:

- Academic and career advising
- Internships
- Workshops, seminars and guest lectures
- Networking opportunities
- Phi Delta Alpha pre-law fraternity
- Law School Admission Test preparation

Along the way, our pre-law adviser and other faculty members with a special interest in law are here to encourage your success. They will provide helpful insights regarding preparation for a career in law and the law school application process.

We also encourage you to explore legal careers firsthand by volunteering in courts and law offices and shadowing practitioners in various legal fields — experiences CNU will help you find.

3 Plus 3 PROGRAM

Our 3+3 Accelerated Program with George Mason University offers undergraduates the opportunity to fast-track their degrees. In just six years, instead of the usual seven, students can earn both a bachelor's degree from CNU and a law degree from the Antonin Scalia Law School, a top 50 program. Undergraduate Research and Creative ACTIVITY

From the moment you arrive at Christopher Newport, you'll have the opportunity to integrate student learning through research and creative activity beyond the traditional classroom. It's one of the best things you can do as a student, and will help open doors to any endeavor after you graduate. As undergraduates, students from every major enrich our campus with their creativity and action, and work directly with expert teacher-scholars to create new knowledge and seek answers to great questions. Student work has led to peer-reviewed publications in notable journals, presentations at conferences both here and abroad, and performances across the country. Whatever field excites you, you'll find a unique opportunity to explore it here.

Some of the best science and engineering facilities in the world are right in our backyard, such as the Thomas Jefferson National Accelerator Facility (Jefferson Lab) and NASA. We're also in the heart of one of the most historic regions in America, and our nation's capital is just a few hours away.

Summer SCHOLARS

Summer scholars are full-time, paid undergraduate research fellows. This program allows intellectually curious, motivated students to team with a professor on a compelling research question. The result is a community of scholars that promotes the collaborative nature of research, champions communication across disciplines and fosters discovery. Through this eight-week, in-residence experience, participants gain research and communication skills, learn more about the University's scholarly resources, and become better problem solvers.

Paideia CONFERENCE

Paideia is Christopher Newport's annual conference dedicated to advancing important research across the liberal arts and sciences. Presentations span a variety of fields, from art to zoology, and everywhere in between. The conference is an interactive venue for students to share the results of their academic journeys with peers and faculty. More than 200 students present research at the Paideia conference each year.

Katrina NAPORA

“ Undergraduate research has allowed me to not only apply some of the techniques I have learned in class but has also given me the opportunity to develop as a scientist. I feel even more assured in my future career path as a result, and I have been incredibly fortunate to present my research both domestically and abroad. ”

Riverside Performing Arts MEDICINE

Christopher Newport's partnership with Riverside Performing Arts Medicine benefits students enrolled in music, theater and dance programs. Bridging the worlds of science and performance, Riverside's team members promote healthy behaviors that help young performers in music, theater and dance nurture their talents.

Riverside employs several health professionals with performance backgrounds who serve as guest lecturers at CNU during the academic year. Topics explored include vocal health, proper keyboard posture, tendonitis issues for string players, techniques to manage performance anxiety, vocal production for actors and more.

In addition, Riverside physical therapists have worked closely with CNU dancers while speech therapists help student performers protect their instrument through examinations.

Opportunities for SERVICE

Christopher Newport students contribute to the greater good by making a positive difference in the life of our campus, community and world. We offer countless opportunities – from service-learning initiatives and projects like Habitat for Humanity to the philanthropic work of our Greek organizations and student-athletes, among others.

Day One of SERVICE

At the beginning of each school year incoming President's Leadership Program (PLP) students work side by side with faculty and staff, volunteering their time with local organizations and schools on Christopher Newport's Annual Day One of Service. This initiative represents the first step in a four-year commitment by students to volunteer throughout their college years. PLP students make a significant impact as they complete at least 100 hours of community service.

Service DISTINCTION

Students who complete at least 140 hours of focused service within the local community graduate with Service Distinction. They also participate in various workshops that explore societal issues challenging our community. In addition to having the opportunity to serve, students gain valuable real-world experience, and their commitment and contributions are recognized at graduation and on their academic record.

Bonner Service Scholars PROGRAM

The Bonner Service Scholars Program is a four-year, developmental program that educates, equips and inspires students to engage our local community and beyond. Through a partnership with the Bonner Foundation, Christopher Newport joins a national network of 60 colleges and universities that support four-year, service scholarships. Bonner Scholars serve on a small, site-based team at least 10 hours each week during the school year, for a combined total of more than 300 hours each year. In addition to direct service, Bonners participate in program development, policy research, national conferences, skills trainings and other development activities. As members of the national Bonner network, students gain real-world experience, training and support.

The students at CNU are committed to service – exploring the Newport News and Hampton Roads areas, identifying their areas of need, and embarking on a goal to make them better than we found them. interview.cnu.edu

Application TYPES

Early Decision

By applying Early Decision, you agree to enroll if offered admission. While you may apply to other colleges, you agree to withdraw all other applications if admitted. If you feel Christopher Newport is the right fit for you, applying Early Decision will give you the best chance for admission as it demonstrates your commitment to CNU, which we take into account when reviewing your application.

Early Action

Early Action is a nonbinding option and great choice for students very interested in CNU but still considering other colleges. By applying Early Action a decision will be made long before the traditional spring notification date.

Regular Decision

Regular Decision is also nonbinding and provides the most time to submit your application. It has the latest notification date and is the most competitive.

Application REVIEW

When reviewing applications we consider each student's academic grades and curriculum, with special attention given to honors, Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate or dual-enrollment courses. We also look for students who demonstrate leadership ability, a commitment to service and community involvement, exemplary talents, and diverse experiences. As part of the application review, Christopher Newport requires a personal statement or essay of no fewer than 250 words to learn more about you, your goals and ideas.

Placement Credit

Credits for Advanced Placement (AP), International Baccalaureate (IB) and dual-enrollment are awarded for appropriate grades and test scores.
