Live Mercy: The Refugee Documentary: 7:00pm

A refugee crisis is unfolding around the world. We captured the honest stories of a few who chose to respond with mercy.

Join the Ekballo Project on the LIVE MERCY film tour. CNU Pope Chapel, 7pm, Free Admission!
The purpose of our LIVE MERCY tour is threefold:

- 1) Awaken hearts to the truth of James 2:13, "Mercy triumphs over judgment," in the context of the present refugee crisis.
- 2) Stir up adoration for Jesus by displaying His love at work among refugees.
- 3) Call individuals to actively respond with mercy, asking God for clear steps to minister His Love, Gospel, and mercy in this moment of need.

Fall 2017 Semester Abroad Interest Meeting

Want to study abroad next fall? Come to MCM 164 at 12:30PM on September 8th to learn about our programs and how you can have the semester of a lifetime! We hope to see you there!

Join the 2016 Weight of Hunger Challenge

Join the WEIGHT OF HUNGER CHALLENGE to see which team can add the most weight to the Foodbank of the Virginia Peninsula!

The Weight of Hunger Challenge is a friendly competition among faculty, staff and student organizations to see who can add the most "weight" to the Peninsula Foodbank.

Participating is easy! Sign up your team to compete for the much coveted "Weight of Hunger Winner" trophy (trophies are awarded to the student organization, academic department, administrative department, and combined department team who contribute the most weight). Collect non-perishable food and/or monetary donations ($1 = 5lbs. of food!) starting Monday, October 31, and bring your donations to the Food for Thought Finale Weigh-In on Wednesday, November 16th, from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. in Tribble Plaza.

Please register your team here:

<http://survey.constantcontact.com/survey/a07edczohoiuijxnae/start>.

Foodbank collection boxes are available this year to assist with collection.

Let's see who can add the most "weight" to the Foodbank of the Virginia Peninsula this fall!

Info session for Summer 2017 program in Aix-en-Provence

Friday, November 4, 5 to 6PM, in 112 MCM

Announcing the Institute for American Universities' summer seminar:

ART 372*: The Mutation of the Antique: Eighteenth-Century Art and the Classical World

First info session: Friday, November 4th from 5 to 6PM in 112 McMurran

Spend three weeks in gorgeous Aix-en-Provence, France, the city of a thousand fountains, all while earning three credits towards your degree! The course will count as transfer credits from IAU (students must receive a grade of C or higher to receive credit); the course transfers as a 300 level art history course and counts towards the CNU Museum Studies minor). Provence, located on the Mediterranean coast in southern France, has one of the most dense and best preserved conglomerations of Roman structures in the Western world. The seminar will include site visits to Roman forums, amphitheaters, and classical and neoclassical museums. Rapture in the beauty of the architecture, relish in the smells of the open air markets, and shop 'til you drop! Provence has it all! All students who participate in the trip will enroll in Dr. Mulryan's course at IAU College in Aix-en-Provence. One of the oldest and most reputable study abroad programs in Europe, IAU offers a host of classes taught in English and French in a wide variety of disciplines.

Price tag for trip:

$3,250, which includes:

- ☐ Pick up and transportation from airport
- ☐ Orientation

Textbooks

- ☐ IAU homestay with a French host (which will include daily breakfasts and six dinners per week)
- ☐ 3 credits in coursework
- ☐ WI-FI network
- ☐ Access to IAU computers and library services
- ☐ On-site student services support

§ Two day-trip study tours

§ All books for the course

§ Field studies trips in Aix-en-Provence and Arles, France (apart from day-trip excursions)

Price does not include transatlantic airfare.

Timeline for class:

Date of departure: June 2nd

Date of arrival: June 3rd

First day of classes June 5 (Monday)

Final exams June 23 (Friday)

Departure Day June 24

Scholarships: IAU offers several scholarships to outstanding students. For more information, please see the following link: <https://www.iaufrance.org/admissions/scholarships>

Members of the National French Honor Society Pi Delta Phi are eligible to apply for a full tuition scholarship for IAU.

Please see the Joseph W. Yedlicka awards at the following link:

<https://www.iaufrance.org/admissions/scholarships>

IAU Application deadline: March 15th, 2017 but students must have complete applications with CNU by March 1st if they intend to participate in the program. This includes the online application forms and enrollment forms. To begin the CNU application, go to www.cnu.edu/studyabroad, create a login and find IAU College summer program to apply. For any CNU scholarships, applications are due by March 1 as well.

Several information sessions will be given in the fall, the first being on Friday, November 4th from 5 to 6 PM in 112 McMurran.

For more information, please contact me, Dr. Michael J. Mulryan at michael.mulryan@cnu.edu or at 757-594-7083.
