

Contents:

- Ramsey Clark to Speak at CNC Graduation
- Sociologist to Appear on Eyewitness News
- CNC Hosts Medieval Week
- Smithsonian Zoologist to Speak at CNC
- Friedman Chairs Reading Panel
- CNC Announces Parks Management Program
- Joseph Kalichstein in Concert
- CNC Names Counseling Center Director
- Kalichstein in Concert
- Virginia Social Science Assn. to Meet
- CNC DECA Chapter Sweeps Competition
- Windsor to Discuss CNC Independence
- Morot-Sir to Speak at CNC
- Biologist at CNC
- Republican City Council Candidates at CNC (4/13)
- CNC Names Director of Development (4/19)
- CNC Sets 1976-77 Concert Series (4/14)
- Colonna Speaks on Offshore Drilling in Bay Area (4/14)
- CNC and ODU Enter Joint Agreement for Engineering Students (4/14)
- College to Host Poetry Recital (4/19)
- “Christopher Newport College Presents CNC” (4/16)
- The CNC Choir will appear in concert Friday, April 30 (4/29)
- Dr. P. David Skaar will speak at CNC on Friday, April 30 (4/29)
- CNC will present at showcase of the college’s activities, programs and faculty on Saturday, May 1 (4/30)
- Students representing CNC at the National Career Development Conference took second place (5/6)
- Nearly 200 students will receive Bachelors and Associates Degrees at CNC’s graduation on Sunday, May 16 (5/10)
- Dr. Robert W. Wildblood will appear on WVEC-TV’s “Midday” program (5/11)
- CNC will be offering a non-credit course in Assertion Training (5/12)
- A distinguished guest lecturer will be teaching on the CNC campus this summer (5/12)
- “Electronic Instrumentation” will be offered as part of the summer program at CNC (5/24)
- Foreign students will be able to take English for Speakers of Other Languages this summer at CNC (5/27)
- CNC Graduation Exercises Fact Sheet (5/16)

- CNC May 1976 Graduates (5/17)
- Former US Attorney General Ramsey Clark spoke to the CNC graduating class Sunday, May 16
- The Physics Department at CNC needs equipment for its course in Electronic Instrumentation (5/28)
- CNC has announced the Dean's honors list for the Spring 1976 semester (5/4)
- Robert E. Dely is the recipient of the Robert M. Usry Scholar-Athlete Award at CNC (5/4)
- Dr. Sandy E. Lopater has been approved for a one-year exchange teaching post in London (5/11)
- Dr. James C. Windsor announced that 1,687 persons from Newport News, Hampton, and York County were helped by Travelers Aid during 1975 (6/2)
- Letter to the editor of the Daily Press from Carl Colonna commenting on the proposals for off-shore drilling in the Tidewater/Chesapeake Bay area
- The following CNC professors will be appearing on upcoming area television talk shows (6/11)
- Feature suggestion on CNC's first Board of Visitors (6/11)
- Speed Reading will be offered through the Basic Studies Department of CNC (6/23)
- CNC will confer Bachelor's and Associate's degrees on nearly 90 graduates on Saturday, August 7 (7/30)
- Story sheet for the CNC August Graduation Ceremony (7/30) *two copies
- CNC conferred degrees yesterday on new graduates (8/8)
- CNC and ODU have reached an agreement to offer a cooperative program through which registered nurses can earn the ODU degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing (8/11)
- CNC President Dr. James C. Windsor has appointed an advisory board to oversee the operations of CNC's day care center (8/12)
- CNC will offer an expanded off-campus program toward a BS degree emphasizing law enforcement (8/10)
- The following students received degrees Saturday, August 7 (8/13) *students not listed
- CNC has established a special adult curriculum in cooperation with local agencies and museums, teaching centers, and the media (8/16)
- CNC has scheduled the following advanced performance classes for qualified singers interested in the production of opera (8/17)
- Registration for the fall semester at CNC will be held (8/20)
- Dr. Thomas J. Musial has announced his resignation (8/24)
- CNC will offer in its Courses by Newspaper program a course on "Oceans: Our Continuing Frontier" (8/30)

- The Peninsula Chapter of the VA Association for Children with Learning Disabilities, the Riverside Hospital Community Mental Health Center, and CNC will be sponsoring a one-day seminar called “Solutions for Kids Who Learn a Different Way” (9/1)
- The Hampton-Newport News League of Women Voters is sponsoring a day-long workshop entitled “Behind Chivalry: Why Men Treat Women the Way They Do” (9/1)
- CNC will once again offer a three-credit history course coordinated with the 13-part series The Adams Chronicles (9/7)
- CNC has announced its third annual Nancy A. Ramseur Memorial Concert Series (9/7)
- CNC officials have announced that this fall’s enrollment has increased more than 7% (9/14)
- The Office of Continuing Studies at CNC is preparing for registration (9/20)
- The third annual Nancy A. Ramseur Memorial Artists-in-Concert Series opens Saturday (9/23)
- Robert Nagel announced the musical program that the New York Brass Quintet will present in concert at CNC (9/23)
- Dr. Franklin K. Babcock to transition from the Director of Counseling and Student Development Services at Bentley College to the Director of Counseling Services at CNC
- The CNC Department of Fine Arts will be holding auditions for its first production (10/4)
- The following statement of issues was provided to the State Secretary of Education and Governor Mills Godwin by CNC President James C. Windsor (10/1) *statements not included
- The CNC Management, Marketing, and Retailing Department will conduct a seminar on “Financing Your Own Small Business” (10/6) *two copies
- The Counseling Center at CNC will be conducting a human sexuality workshop (10/6)
- CNC is offering a special course to help prospective students with selecting the right school (10/13)
- October 10th-16th is National Family Sex Education Week (10/6)
- Several local and national business firms and organizations will be recruiting for potential employees on the CNC campus
- The CNC Department of Fine and Performing Arts will feature a young violinist, David Kim (10/8)
- CNC is offering a non-credit course for the “One Parent Family” (10/11)
- President Ford has signed into law the new GI Bill, making significant changes in the benefits available to veterans, particularly in the area of education (10/21)
- Companies will be recruiting potential employees at CNC next week
- Students completing teacher preparation programs may take the National Teacher Examinations on any of the three different test dates (10/21)
- The Newport News Council of the International Reading Association and the CNC Student Virginia Education Association are sponsoring “Reading and Writing Creatively”

- Letter to Judy from Kathy asking if she would be interested in doing a story on the Admissions Report for CNC (10/22)
- The Virginia Swingers will appear in concert November 6 *two copies, one 10/29, one 11/6
- November college nights will be held all over Virginia (10/29)
- College Night at Menchville High School will take place November 8
- Story sheet about the 45-50 students from the Exceptional Student Program in the five Hampton High Schools who will be guests of the CNC history department during it second visitation day (11/1)
- College Night at Tabb High School will take place November 9 (11/9)
- College Night at Phoebus High School will take place November 10 (11/10)
- The Psychology Department at CNC will sponsor at colloquium Friday, November 12 (11/8)
- Tidewater basketball players will play a big part in the CNC season (11/15)
- The Thursday Consort will appear in the CNC Campus Center Theater on Friday, November 19 (11/17)
- Successfully surviving an interview was the topic of the CNC Student Virginia Education Association Meeting
- The CNC Players will present The Knack (11/22)
- James C. Windsor received the Distinguished Service award from the National and Virginia State Associations of Mental Health (12/8z0)
- December graduation exercises at CNC will be Sunday, December 19 (12/8)
- Over 120 students graduated from CNC on Sunday (12/19)